

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
1. Introduction: The Meaning of Spectrality	1
1.1. (Re-)Configurations of the Uncanny	1
1.2. Voyages into the Past	9
1.3. Ghostly Alterities	23
2. The Eye and the I: Visibility, Subjectivity and Textuality	27
2.1. The Question of Visibility and the Agency of Textuality	29
2.2. The White Eye on the Black I	38
2.3. Ghosts in Search of an Identity	45
2.4. Stolen Eyes, Stolen Rights	59
2.5. The Third Eye	68
3. Melancholic (G)hospitality	79
3.1. Melancholic (G)hospitality	80
3.2. Mourning and Melancholy in Beloved	94
3.3. Racial Melancholy and (G)hospitality in Baby No-Eyes and Foe	113
4. Uneven Roads: The Courses of History	133
4.1. The Courses of History	134
4.2. The Roads of Memory	141
4.3. Ghostly Identities	152
5. Conclusion: Ghostliness as Otherness	161
Works Cited	165
Bibliography	171