

Contents

Michael Dewe
Introduction	7
Part One
Seminar Papers
Franz Kroller
Adaptation of buildings to library use: an overview	13
Harry Faulkner-Brown
Feasibility studies before adaptation	17
Robert K. Jopp
Regulations and guidelines and the adaptation of existing buildings to library use	46
Mária Fejes
Protection and utilization of our historic buildings	54
István Papp
Can a librarian accept an old building?	58
Michael Dewe
Flexibility and open plan versus narrow spaces, immovable walls, fixed structure	72
J. Boot
New technological installations and equipment in old buildings	84
Peter Schweigler
New technical installations and equipment in old buildings	94
Wim Renes and L. B. Rook
Furnishing and decoration of adapted buildings	105
Klaus Bock
Problems of functioning and management	134
Jenö Kiss
Problems of functioning and management	142

Part TwoShort reports of experience

Alicia Giron Garcia

The conversion of five buildings into public libraries 151

Peter Günnel and Gerhard Schwarz

Questions of adaptation in library construction in the GDR 164

Elisabeth Lylloff and Sven Plovgaard

Library Buildings 1984 – a new Danish guide to the planning of premises for public libraries 173

B. U. Nwafor

Adaptation of buildings to university library use: a view from the third world 190

Hans H. Wellisch

Teaching library planning to library students 199

Zhu Cheng-gong

User needs – the principal basis for designing college or university's library buildings 206Part Three*Visits

National Széchenyi Library 218

Zsófia Csomay, Péter Hegedüs and Zsuzsa Kerecsényi

County Library, Békéscsaba 228

Somogyi Library, Szeged 239