

INHALT

Foreword	1
----------------	---

PART I WHAT IS MYTH?

I. The Structure of Mythical Thought	7
II. Myth and Language	19
III. Myth and the Psychology of Emotions	27
IV. The Function of Myth in Man's Social Life	39

PART II THE STRUGGLE AGAINST MYTH IN THE HISTORY OF POLITICAL THEORY

V. »Logos« and »Mythos« in Early Greek Philosophy	53
VI. Plato's Republic	61
VII. The Religious and Metaphysical Background of the Medieval Theory of the State	77
VIII. The Theory of the Legal State in Medieval Philosophy	97
IX. Nature and Grace in Medieval Philosophy	107
X. Machiavelli's New Science of Politics	117
The Machiavelli Legend	117
XI. The Triumph of Machiavellism and Its Consequences	131
Machiavelli and the Renaissance	131
The Modern Secular State	134
Religion and Politics	139

xii.	Implications of the New Theory of the State	141
	The Isolation of the State and Its Dangers	141
	The Moral Problem in Machiavelli	142
	The Technique of Politics	152
	The Mythical Element in Machiavelli's Political Philosophy: Fortune	155
xiii.	The Renaissance of Stoicism and »Natural Right« Theories of the State	163
	The Theory of the Social Contract	163
xiv.	The Philosophy of the Enlightenment and Its Romantic Critics	175

PART III

THE MYTH OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

xv.	The Preparation: Carlyle	187
	Carlyle's Lectures on Hero Worship	187
	The Personal Background of Carlyle's Theory.....	196
	The Metaphysical Background of Carlyle's Theory and His Conception of History	207
xvi.	From Hero Worship to Race Worship	221
	Gobineau's »Essai sur l'inégalité des races humaines«	221
	The Theory of the »Totalitarian Race«	228
xvii.	Hegel	245
	The Influence of Hegel's Philosophy upon the Development of Modern Political Thought	245
	The Metaphysical Background of Hegel's Political Theory	251
	Hegel's Theory of the State	259
xviii.	The Technique of the Modern Political Myths	273
	Conclusion.....	293
	Editorischer Bericht	295
	Abkürzungen	299
	Schriftenregister.....	301
	Personenregister	323