

Contents

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Preface   | vii |
| Introduction  | ix  |
| Institutional Bridges  | x          |
| 1. Early Institutionalists  | 1   |
| Early Institutional Theory in Economics  | 2          |
| Early Institutional Theory in Political Science  | 5          |
| Early Institutional Theory in Sociology  | 8          |
| Concluding Comment   | 16         |
| Notes  | 17         |
| 2. Institutional Theory Meets Organization Studies                                  | 19  |
| Institutions and Organizations: Early Approaches   | 20         |
| Foundations of Neoinstitutional Theory   | 26         |
| Concluding Comment   | 44         |
| Notes  | 45         |
| 3. Crafting an Analytic Framework I:    Three Pillars of Institutions          | 47  |
| Defining Institutions  | 48         |
| The Three Pillars of Institutions  | 50         |
| The Three Pillars and Legitimacy   | 59         |
| Basic Assumptions Associated With the Three Pillars  | 62         |
| Concluding Comment   | 70         |
| Notes  | 71         |
| 4. Crafting an Analytic Framework II:    Content, Agency, Carriers, and Levels | 73  |
| Institutional Content and Organizations  | 73         |
| Agency and Institutions  | 76         |
| Varying Carriers   | 79         |
| Varying Levels of Analysis   | 85         |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| Concluding Comment  | 90         |
| Notes   | 91         |
| 5. Institutional Construction                      | 93  |
| Creating Institutions                                     | 94         |
| Selected Studies of Institutional Construction            | 106        |
| Concluding Comment  | 119        |
| Notes   | 119        |
| 6. Institutionalization                            | 121 |
| Three Conceptions of Institutionalization:                |            |
| Underlying Mechanisms                                     | 121        |
| Maintaining and Diffusing Institutions                    | 128        |
| Carriers and Institutional Mechanisms                     | 140        |
| Concluding Comment  | 145        |
| Notes   | 146        |
| 7. Institutional Processes and Organizations       | 149 |
| Organizations and Institutions: Three Views               | 150        |
| Legitimacy and Isomorphism                                | 151        |
| Institutional Context and Organizational Structure        | 158        |
| Strategic Responses                                       | 169        |
| Sources of Divergence                                     | 177        |
| Concluding Comment  | 178        |
| Notes   | 178        |
| 8. Institutional Processes and Organization Fields | 181 |
| Conceptualizing Organization Fields                       | 181        |
| Field Structuration Processes                             | 190        |
| Structuration, Destructuration, and Restructuration       | 195        |
| Concluding Comment  | 208        |
| Notes   | 209        |
| 9. An Overview and a Caution                       | 211 |
| Distinctive Features                                      | 211        |
| The Maturation of Institutional Theory and Research       | 215        |
| A Cautionary Comment                                      | 219        |
| Notes   | 220        |
| References   | 221 |
| Index  | 259 |
| About the Author                                   | 265 |