

CONTENTS

Preface to the Third Edition	v
Introduction	vii
1. THE DEPARTMENT
Pre-cataloging, cataloging, and post-cataloging functions. Bibliographic searching. LC cataloging. Original cataloging. Card reproduction. Catalog maintenance. Book preparation.	1
2. THE DEPARTMENT HEAD
Areas of responsibility. Management as leadership. Functions of the department head. Managerial authority. Decision making. Time management. Career development.	24
3. CURRENT ISSUES
Centralized processing. AACR2 and closing the card catalog. Brief cataloging. Cataloging nonbook materials. Card reproduction methods. Dividing the card catalog. Department facilities. Streamlining department operations.	45
4. EFFECTIVE STAFFING
Staff recruitment. Recruiting methods. Selection process. Departmental assignments. Professional versus nonprofessional. Specialization. The dual assignment.	79
5. ORIENTATION, TRAINING, EVALUATION
In-service training. Training programs. Workshops. Evaluations. Formal rating systems. Performance standards. Evaluation procedure. Career development.	101

6.	STAFF RELATIONSHIPS
	Departmental relations. Reducing tensions. Mutual problem solving. Staff complaints. Correcting department errors. The credibility gap. Motivating staff. Job satisfaction.	133
7.	RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT
	Individual research. Selecting a project. The research report. Encouraging research. Mining for ideas. Is it a good idea?	157
8.	ORGANIZATIONAL GROWTH
	Organizational groupings. Department structure. The future. Change and how to sell it.	170
9.	DEPARTMENT COMMUNICATIONS
	Forms management. Information slips. Bulletin boards. Newsletter. Memos. Monthly and annual reports. Statistics. Letters. Attitude surveys.	182
10.	ORAL COMMUNICATIONS
	The interview. Department meetings. Committees. Telephone. Department grapevine. Communication blocks.	195
11.	DEPARTMENT TOOLS
	The reference shelf. The job description. The department manual. The budget. The consultant. MBO. Systems analysis. The Delphi technique. Accountability.	214
12.	THE COMPUTER
	Bibliographic networks. Staffing. Training. COM catalogs. Retrospective conversion.	241
	Bibliography	254
	Index	261