

Contents

Foreword	vii
Editor's preface	viii
The contributors	x
Introductory
1 Current issues in academic libraries Maurice B. Line	1
2 The relationship between the academic library and the parent institution Christopher J. Hunt	7
Functions and objectives
3 Large university library James Thompson	14
4 New university library Peter J. Tucker	18
5 Technological university library Lynne Brindley	24
6 Polytechnic library Nigel Macartney	28
Collections
7 Concepts of stock: comprehensive vs. selective Brian J. Enright	36
8 Stock management and disposal: collection building and demolition Ian Winkworth	51
9 Acquisitions: Books Geoffrey Ford	64
10 Journals Alan MacDougall	78
11 Grey literature David N. Wood and John P. Chillag	84
12 Preservation and conservation Peter Fox	90
Services
13 Cataloguing and subject access Philip Bryant	101
14 Reference and information services John Fletcher	114
15 Lending services Geoffrey Ford	122
16 Services to external users Lynne Brindley	133

Cooperation

- 17 Interlibrary access, national and international Maurice B. Line 139
18 Cooperation in collections Henry J. Heaney 147
19 Other forms of cooperation Alan F. MacDougall 155

Staffing and personnel

- 20 Management styles and systems Ian Rogerson 160
21 Staff structures Christopher J. Hunt 166
22 Staff development and appraisal David M. Baker 173
23 Training for management Alan F. MacDougall 180

Evaluation

- 24 The concept of 'library goodness': user and library perception of quality and value Maurice B. Line 185
25 Performance measurement A. Graham Mackenzie 196
26 Monitoring and management information Lynne Brindley 206

Finance

- 27 Financial management systems John Fletcher 215
28 Revenue earning and cost recovery Nigel Macartney 223

Automation and electronic technology

- 29 The IT-based manager Mel Collier 232

Marketing and public relations

- 30 Marketing Nigel Macartney 237
31 Public relations and publicity Lynne Brindley 249

In conclusion

- 32 Academic libraries: a new generation? Maurice B. Line 255

Index

264