

Table of Contents

Preface	XI
Agenda of the Seminar	XIII
List of Participants	XVII
Participating Vendors	XXIII
Günther Pflug
Keynote Address	1
David Raitt
Based on experience: tips for vendors, operators and users of automated systems.	5
Gerrit Alewaeters
Choices in the design of the VUBIS (II) online public access module	29
Kathleen Bivins Noerr
The INTERCEPTOR: a local system with connections	55
Svante Hallgren
Three-dimensional Snakes and Ladders – Swedish version	67
Shmuel Sever
An informal cataloging network	77
Piet Schoots
The ALS on-line integrated library system, the Rotterdam solution	89
Humphrey Pickering
The use of distributed intelligence in an integrated local system.	129
David Buckle
Integrated local systems	139
Dennis Hawes
Electronic library – the future and the user groups.	157

Olga Porotnikoff
The central and the local data base – a comparison	177
Karl Stock
Library local network with shared resource manager	199
Sinikka Koskiala
Value added networks and local area networks in library use.	211
Rainer Hesse	paper not submitted
Concepts of an integrated library system using a data base management system
Morten Hein
Bibliographic standards and the local system	225
Caryl McAllister
DOBIS/LIBIS: an online, integrated, turnkey local library system.	239
A. Stratton McAllister
System design for a turnkey local library system: DOBIS/LIBIS	259
Sigrid Reinitzer
Planning central automation for Austrian research libraries	267
Bettina Schmitz; Werner Kalbfleisch
ZEUS: a system for serials check-in and routing control	275
Patrick Fawcett
SIRIUS: an online serials control system	303
Barbara Snead
From network to turnkey: a “BLIS”-ful experience	325