

Contents

Preface	VII
---------------	-----

I. Theoretical problems

Methods in reading research by Robert Escarpit (France) ..	1
Theoretical and methodological problems of research on reading habits. Remarks, proposals, postulates by Janusz Ankudowicz (Poland)	17
Problems connected with the issue of reading competence. Perspectives of the reading public typology by Andrzej Robert Zieliński (Poland)	39
The model of studies on the history of readership by Janusz Kostecki (Poland)	59

II. General experiences at national level

Books and mass media. Competition and interaction by Valeria Stelmach (Soviet Union)	95
Adult reading habits by Martin Kling (USA)	103
Changes in reading habits and library use in Hungary by Ferenc Gereben (Hungary)	121
The structure of Hungarian library users' literary experience by Zoltán Balogh and István Kamarás (Hungary) ...	135
Reading in India. Issues for research by Surendra P. Agrawal (India)	163
Some reading research in Australia in the 1980's by Edward R. Reid-Smith (Australia)	171
The study of reading activity in the context of Australian libraries by Geoffrey G. Allen and F. C. Andrew Exon (Australia)	183
Sociologie de la lecture et des usages en bibliothèque. Quelques recherches récentes en France par Martine Poulain (France)	199
Die Schriftreform in der Türkei und ihre kulturellen Folgen von Meral Alpay. (Türkei)	215

III. Public library problems

How constant are the readers? by Bryan Luckham (United Kingdom)	225
Libraries and communication. The library and book in relation to other media of communication by Robert C. Usherwood (United Kingdom)	243
Social structure, book reading and the function of public libraries. Effects of selectivity of social structure on the quality and quantity of book reading and the use of public libraries by Pertti Vakkari (Finland)	259
Addresses of authors	283