

CONTENTS

---

Acknowledgments	ix
INTRODUCTION: At the Crossroads of Postcolonial and Globalization Studies	1
Connections, Conflicts, Complicities Revathi Krishnaswamy	2
Agencies for Resistance, Prospects for Evolution John C. Hawley	22
PART I. Disciplinarity and Its Discontents	33
1. Postcolonial Studies and Globalization Theory Timothy Brennan	37
2. Universal Areas: Asian Studies in a World in Motion Pheng Cheah	54
3. Revisionism and the Subject of History R. Radhakrishnan	69
4. The Many Scales of the Global: Implications for Theory and for Politics Saskia Sassen	82
5. World-System Analysis and Postcolonial Studies: A Call for a Dialogue from the “Coloniality of Power” Approach Ramón Grosfoguel	94
PART II. Planetarity and the Postcolonial	105
6. The Logic of Coloniality and the Limits of Postcoloniality Walter D. Mignolo and Madina Tlostanova	109
7. Culture Debates in Translation Ella Shohat and Robert Stam	124
8. The Postcolonial Bubble Anouar Majid	134
9. Globalized Terror and the Postcolonial Sublime: Questions for Subaltern Militants E. San Juan Jr.	157
10. Empire and the “New” Politics of Resistance Pal Ahluwalia	166

11. Amitav Ghosh: Cosmopolitanisms, Literature, Transnationalisms Inderpal Grewal	178
12. Sanctions against South Africa: Historical Example or Historic Exception? Barbara Harlow	191
13. From Bollywood to Hollywood: The Globalization of Hindi Cinema Harish Trivedi	200
PART III. Imperiality and the Global	211
14. Discourses of Globalization: A Transnational Capitalist Class Analysis Leslie Sklair	215
15. The Postmodern Voice of Empire: The Metalogic of Unaccountability John McMurtry	228
16. Striking Back against Empire: Working-Class Responses to Globalization Verity Burgmann	238
17. Localizing Global Technoscience Geoffrey C. Bowker	252
18. Law, Nation, and (Imagined) International Communities Ruth Buchanan and Sundhya Pahuja	261
19. Globalization as Neo-, Postcolonialism: Politics of Resentment and Governance of the World's Res Publica Ileana Rodríguez	275
POSTSCRIPT: An Interview with Arjun Appadurai John C. Hawley	289
Publication History	295
Contributors	297
Index	301