

Table of Contents

Preface	1
Programme	3
List of Participants	6

Papers given at the morning session

Short introduction to the topic

Ulrich Montag (Bavarian State Library, Munich, Germany)	9
---	---

The international problem of differential pricing for research literature. Final report on a project carried out by the IFLA Section on Acquisition and Exchange

Rolf Griebel with the assistance of Ulrike Tschardtke (University Library of Erlangen - Nürnberg, Germany)	10
---	----

A bookseller's perspective on the problem of differential pricing

Knut Dorn, (Otto Harrassowitz, Library Agents, Wiesbaden, Germany)	25
--	----

Differential pricing: STM publishers' practices and perspectives

Karen Hunter, (Elsevier Science Publishers BV, for the International Group of Scientific, Technical and Medical Publishers (STM), Amsterdam, Netherlands)	35
---	----

"Will the Chain Break?" Authors and editors aren't worried...for now

Richard M. Dougherty, (President, American Library Association; Editor, Journal of Academic Librarianship)	45
--	----

Report on the afternoon panel discussion and open discussion

Karen Muller, (American Library Association, ALCTS)	52
---	----

Results and further action

Ulrich Montag	58
---------------------	----

Appendices

I. IFLA Section for Acquisition and Exchange Questionnaire on differential pricing	62
II. STM Group of Publishers Questionnaire on differential pricing	77
III. Pricing policy of academic publishers with special consideration for differential pricing: a selective bibliography, by Rolf Griebel	83