

Contents

Preface	7
Jo Bardoel and Gregory Ferrell Lowe From Public Service Broadcasting to Public Service Media. The Core Challenge	9
PSM PLATFORMS: POLICY & STRATEGY
Karol Jakubowicz Public Service Broadcasting in the 21 st Century. What Chance for a New Beginning?	29
Hallvard Moe Commercial Services, Enclosure and Legitimacy. Comparing Contexts and Strategies for PSM Funding and Development	51
Andra Leurdijk Public Service Media Dilemmas and Regulation in a Converging Media Landscape	71
Steven Barnett Can the Public Service Broadcaster Survive? Renewal and Compromise in the New BBC Charter	87
Richard van der Wurff Focus on Audiences. Public Service Media in the Market Place	105
Teemu Palokangas The Public Service Entertainment Mission. From Historic Periphery to Contemporary Core	119
PSM PROGRAMMES: STRATEGY & TACTICS
Yngvar Kjrus Ideals and Complications in Audience Participation for PSM. Open Up or Hold Back?	135

Brian McNair Current Affairs in British Public Service Broadcasting. Challenges and Opportunities	151
Irene Costera Meijer 'Checking, Snacking and Bodysnatching'. How Young People Use the News and Implications for Public Service Media Journalism	167
Hanne Bruun Satire as Cross-Media Entertainment for Public Service Media	187
Mirko Lukács Education in the Transition to Public Service Media	199
Philip Savage The Audience Massage. Audience Research and Canadian Public Service Broadcasting	215
THE ROOTS OF PSM
Slavko Splichal Does History Matter? Grasping the Idea of Public Service Media at Its Roots	237
Author Biographies	257