

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
1 Modernity and Foundations	11
Modernity, Foundations, and Normativity	12
Pre-Modernity and Legitimation	14
The Post-Modern Challenge to Modernity and the Limits of the Enlightenment	15
The Dilemma behind the Rhetoric of Post-Modernism	22
Modernity beyond Enlightenment and Post-Modernism	23
2 Modernity and Secular Culture	25
Modernity and Philosophy	25
Modernity and the Institutions of Right	27
Modernity and Fine Art	34
3 Modernity and Religion	39
The Generic Nature of Religion	40
Rational Agency and the Fundamental Ways of Construing Divinity	44
Religion and Property Rights	53
Religion and Morality	54
Religion and Household Rights	56
Religion and Civil Society	57
Religion and Self-Government	58
The Internal Imperative for Religious Reformation	64
Religion and Modernization	68
4 Modernity and the Post-Colonial Condition	69
The Problem of Post-Colonialism	69
The Dual Character of Emergent Modernity	72
The Globalizing Tendencies of Emergent Modernity	76
Modernity and the Logic of Colonialism	81
Principles of the Post-Colonial Predicament	89
Islam and the Post-Colonial Predicament	92

5 Islam and Modernity	95
The Liberating Promise of Islam	95
The Life of Muhammad and the Specter of the Caliphate	98
Islam, the Post-Colonial Condition, and Islamist Reaction	106
National Revolution and the Modernization of Islam	111
Modernization and the Religious Reformation of Islam	121
Works Cited	135
Index	139