

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
A Note on Texts	xi
INTRODUCTION
Fantasy and Ideology	1
Masochism in Context	4
What Is Masochistic Fantasy?	17
Multiple Masochisms	28
CHAPTER ONE
Melancholy Magic: Robert Louis Stevenson's Evangelical Anti-Imperialism	31
Masochistic Splitting in the Scottish Novels	36
Evangelicalism: Pain Is Power	47
Rewriting Social Class at the Periphery: South Seas Tales	59
Racial Projections	72
Anti-Imperialist Euphoria in the Samoan Civil War	76
The Reversibility of Masochistic Politics	84
CHAPTER TWO
Olive Schreiner's Preoedipal Dreams: Feminism, Class, and the South African War	86
The Clash of Pleasure Economies in The Story of an African Farm	90
New Woman Feminism	96
The Regeneration of Middle-Class Culture	107
Fantasizing about the Boers	113
Domestic Middle-Class Identity and the War over the War	124
Feminist Masochism, Class Regeneration, and Critical Disavowal	129
CHAPTER THREE
Sadomasochism and the Magical Group: Kipling's Middle-Class Imperialism	136
Sadomasochism, Bullying, and Omnipotence in Stalky & Co.	140
Magical Groups: Bullies, Victims, and Bystanders	151
Kim: The Magical Group as Imperial Agent	160
Magical Professionals in the Short Fiction	168

Evangelicalism and Middle-Class Unilateralism	182
Class Hostility, Classlessness, and the Magical Middle Class	188
CHAPTER FOUR
The Masochism of the Craft: Conrad's Imperial Professionalism	196
Varieties of Colonial Omnipotence	200
"In the Destructive Element Immerse"	210
Empathy as a Narcissistic Disorder	216
Class Magic and Class Melancholia	223
Professional Redemption	235
Masochistic Imperialism	244
CONCLUSION	247
Index	253