

Contents

	Page
Introduction	9
I On the Identity of Pictures	16
1. The Incompatibility Argument	16
2. On Pictorial Properties	20
3. A Double-Aspect Account	22
II On the Interpretation of Representational Surfaces ..	28
1. What Sort of Things Are Pictures?	28
2. Interpreting Representational Surfaces	30
3. The Correspondence View	35
4. Projection	38
5. Pictures and Maps	41
6. Varieties of Representational Surface	47
III Picture Space	51
1. Representation of Space	51
2. Implied Represented Space	54
3. Picture Space and Picture Surface	60
4. Pictures without Picture Space	68
5. Conclusion	70
IV What is Said to be Represented	73
1. Ambiguous Representation Statements	73
2. The Existential Criterion	75
3. Kinds of Picture	79
4. Pictorial Counterparts	84
5. On the Logic of Representation Statements	86
Appendix: Pictures and Fiction	92
V Representational Intentions	95
1. On Intentions	95
2. The Place of Intentions in the Analysis of Re- presentation	97
3. Types of Representational Intention	99
4. Recognition of Representational Intentions	102

VI	The Role of Conventions	108
	1. Conventions and Conventionality	108
	2. Is Representation Conventional?	111
	3. Perspective and Illusion	114
	4. Perspective and Other Methods of Representation	118
	5. Representation and Truth	120
	6. Conclusion	125
VII	The Causal Factor	129
	1. The Causal Theory of Portrayal	129
	2. Photographs	135
	3. Conclusion	138
VIII	The Perception of Pictures	140
	1. The Visual Core	140
	2. Seeing a Picture as a Picture	149
	3. Seeing into a Picture	156
	4. Some Related Questions	168
	Bibliography	173