

Contents

Foreword, by Joseph Margolis ix

Preface to The Corded Shell xiii

Preface to Sound Sentiment xv

Part One

The Corded Shell: Reflections on Musical Expression 1

Illustration. The Saint Bernard Has a Sad Face 2

I. The Paradox of Musical Description 3

II. To Express and to Be Expressive 12

III. Speaking and Singing 18

IV. A "Physiology" of Musical Expression 27

V. An "Iconography" of Musical Expression 39

VI. A "Physiognomy" of Musical Expression 46

VII. The "Physiognomy" Defended 57

VIII. Contour and Convention 71

IX. Breaking the Culture Barrier 84

X. Tone, Text, and Title 95

XI. The Beauty of It All 112

XII. How to Emote over Music
(Without Losing Your Respectability) 132

Part Two

Paying the Piper:

Further Reflections on Musical Expression 151

XIII. And Nevertheless It's Sad 153

XIV. Newcomb's Problems 177

XV.	And Nevertheless It Moves	210
XVI.	Formalism and Feeling	234
	Notes	263
	Bibliography	275
	Index	281