

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction Catharine MacLeod and Julia Marciari Alexander	xi
“Thy Longing Country’s Darling and Desire”: Aesthetics, Sex, and Politics in the England of Charles II Kevin Sharpe	i
“There Is None That Loves Him but Drunk Whores and Whoremongers”: Popular Criticisms of the Restoration Court Tim Harris	35
Love Pleasant, Love Unfortunate: Women in Seventeenth-Century Popular Prints Sheila O’Connell	61
The “Windsor Beauties” and the Beauties Series in Restoration England Catharine MacLeod and Julia Marciari Alexander	81
Sites of Instruction: Andrew Marvell and the Tropes of Restoration Portraiture Steven N. Zwicker	123
“Subdued by a Famous Roman Dame”: Picturing Foreignness, Notoriety, and Prerogative in the Portraits of Hortense Mancini, Duchess Mazarin Susan Shifrin	141

The Female Politician in the Late Stuart Age Rachel Weil	177
The Apotheosis of Absolutism and the Interrupted Masque: Theater, Music, and Monarchy in Restoration England Andrew R. Walkling	193
Celebrity Erotics: Pepys, Performance, and Painted Ladies Joseph Roach	233
Notes on Contributors	253
Photography Credits	255
Index	257