

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Abbreviations	viii
Foreword	xiii
Introduction	1
1 Objective Vision: 'we can live only by feeding abroad'	23
I. Visionary journeys	24
II. Naturalist detail	31
III. Natural ephemera	35
a. Celestial bodies	35
b. Skyscapes	36
c. Seascapes	40
IV. Optical illusions	41
2 Visions of Nature in Lyric Poetry: 'My eye shall dart thro' infinite expanse'	46
I. Lyric journeys	47
II. Reading nature	56
a. The poet-prophet	56
b. Nature's ministry	58
c. The book of nature	64
III. Transparency of nature and spirit	67
3 Artistic Vision: 'Nature, or the divine Art'	74
I. Symbols 'consubstantial with the truths, of which they are the conductors '	75
II. Natural symbols	79
III. Artistic vision	83
IV. Powers of the poet	88
V. Genius: 'genius places things in a new light '	91
VI. Imagination: 'that synthetic and magical power'	95
VII. The crisis of imagination: 'My genial spirits fail'	98

4	Natural and Supernatural	108
	I. Mysticism	110
	II. Dream states	113
	III. Ghosts and apparitions	116
	IV. The supernatural in literature	119
	V. Allegorical visions	122
	VI. Opium reveries	131
	VII. Lyrical Ballads	135
5	Philosophical Vision: Solving 'The Riddle of the World'	145
	I. 'Eternal universal mystery': the one and the many	146
	II. Definitions of nature and spirit	148
	III. Philosophical faculties of vision	152
	a. Sensory and supersensory	152
	b. Ascending faculties	157
	c. Towards a theory of perception	161
	IV. Naturphilosophie	165
	V. Philosophical method	170
6	Religious Vision: 'an inward eye, which is both eye and light'	182
	I. The art of reflection	183
	II. Spiritual vision	188
	a. Yearning for oneness	188
	b. Inward vision	190
	c. Ascending faculties	192
	d. Limits and horizons	196
	III. Faith	198
	IV. Trinitarianism	203
	V. Transparency of nature and spirit	214
	Bibliography	217
	Index	221