

Contents

Preface	vii
Prologue	ix
1. It was a tragic move	1
2. The parlor was uncomfortable as the cellar	21
3. the kind of freedom I had always needed	38
4. a battle of angels above them	52
5. Jack be nimble, Jack be quick, Jack jump over, Arithmetic!	64
6. Not about nightingales	83
7. The Play is memory	97
8. Alma is Spanish for soul	113
9. You didn't know Blanche as a girl	130
10. They live from the heat	155

CONTENTS

11. this one was meant most for the vulgarity of performance	172
12. the earth destroys her crooked child	185
13. But we've never talked to each other!	198
14. Some things are marked by their nature to be not completed	223
15. God shows a savage face to people	240
16. lost in the beanstalk country, the ogre's country	260
17. High Point is built on a cavern	275
Conclusion	287
Acknowledgments	295
Index	298

Each chapter title is a quotation from a work of Tennessee Williams.