

Contents

Foreword	vii
Peter N. Kiang
Preface and Acknowledgments	xi
Map of Indochina	xv
Map of Lowell	xvi

Part I. Migration and Settlement

1. Introduction	3
Jeffrey N. Gerson, Sylvia R. Cowan, and Tuyet-Lan Pho
2. Lowell, Politics, and the Resettlement of Southeast Asian Refugees and Immigrants, 1975-2000	10
Hai B. Pho
3. Public Policy and Local Economies: The Phenomenon of Secondary Migration	19
Jean Larson Pyle

Part II. Cultural Adaptation and Transnationalism

4. Reflections on the Concept of Social Capital	49
David Turcotte and Linda Silka
5. Family Education and Academic Performance among Southeast Asian Students	69
Tuyet-Lan Pho
6. Does the System Work for Cambodian American Students? The Educational Experiences and Demographics of Cambodians in Lowell, Massachusetts	88
Khin Mai Aung and Nancy Yu

7. Along the Path to Nibbana: Civic Engagement, Community Partnerships, and Lowell's Southeast Asian Buddhist Temples 112
Susan Thomson
8. Lao Refugees in Lowell: Reinterpreting the Past, Finding Meaning in the Present 131
Sylvia R. Cowan
9. The Battle for Control of the Trairatanaram Cambodian Temple 153
Jeffrey N. Gerson
10. Exploring the Psychosocial Adjustment of Khmer Refugees in Massachusetts from an Insider's Perspective 173
Leakhena Nou
11. Transforming Experiences: When Host Communities Become Home Communities 192
Linda Silka

Part III. Reflections

12. Conclusion and Recommendations for Future Research 207
Sylvia R. Cowan, Jeffrey N. Gerson, and Tuyet-Lan Pho

- Contributors* 215
Index 219

Photographs follow page 38