

Contents

Preface ix

- 1. The Problem: Whence Music Comes i
 - Facts about Music i
 - Theories about Music 7
- 2. The Idea of Music as Cognition 29
 - Preliminary Concepts 29
 - Case Study: The Formal Western Tradition 42
 - Psychological Research in Music 52
- 3. Some Processes 69
 - Defining Music Cognition 69
 - Temporal Processes 74
 - Nontemporal Processes 79
 - Aims of a Developmental Approach 88
- 4. The Development of Temporal Processes in the Child 95
 - General Introduction to the Studies 95
 - Temporality: Understanding the Successive Dimension 107
 - Temporality: Understanding Simultaneity 134
- 5. The Development of Nontemporal Processes in the Child 157
 - Tonal Closure: Understanding Endedness 157
 - Transformations: Understanding Similarity and Difference 171
 - Abstraction: Recognizing Parts in New Contexts 196
 - Hierarchic Levels: Understanding Musical Structure 213
- 6. Conclusions 223
 - Developmental Trends 224
 - The Role of Formal Training and Pitch Discrimination 228

Temporal and Nontemporal Processes 231
Conclusion 233

References 237

Index 243