

Contents

Notes on editors and contributors	viii
Introduction: What is narrative research?	1
Corinne Squire, Molly Andrews and Maria Tamboukou
Chapter 1 Narratives of events: Labovian narrative analysis and its limitations	22
Wendy Patterson
Chapter 2 Experience-centred and culturally-oriented approaches to narrative	41
Corinne Squire
Chapter 3 Analysing narrative contexts	64
Ann Phoenix
Chapter 4 Looking back on narrative research: An exchange	78
Phillida Salmon and Catherine Kohler Riessman
Chapter 5 Never the last word: Revisiting data	86
Molly Andrews
Chapter 6 A Foucauldian approach to narratives	102
Maria Tamboukou
Chapter 7 Narrating sensitive topics	121
Margareta Hydén
Chapter 8 The public life of narratives: Ethics, politics, methods	137
Paul Gready
Concluding comments	151
Catherine Kohler Riessman
Index	157