

Contents

Prologue	ix
1 Two logics	1
Clichés of the West	2
Active patients	6
The method	8
The book	11
2 Customer or patient?	14
Product or process	16
Target group or team member	20
Dreams or support	23
Hoping for health or living with disease	26
Actors who let go	27
3 The citizen and the body	29
Control or attentiveness	31
Tame or nourish	34
Determined or alive	37
Who is in charge or what to do	40
4 Managing versus doctoring	42
Informative facts or target values	43
Means or modifiers	46
Calculating or attuning	50
Managing doctors or shared doctoring	54
5 Individual and collective	57
Pre-given individuals or careful individuation	59
Adding equals or crafting categories	62

viii Contents

Healthy behaviour or helpful conditions 66

The hidden brave 70

6 The good in practice 73

Morality in action 74

Active patients 79

Improving health care 83

Translations 89

Acknowledgements 95

Notes 98

Literature 116

Index 126