

Contents

Foreword	page	7
Preface		9
I Background to the study		13
The Schools Council Research Project		13
Interests and organization of the groups		14
II Co-operative organization: working parties		19
Why have a working party?		20
Size and membership		20
Chairmanship		31
Place, time and frequency of meetings		32
Aims and objectives		33
III Undertaking surveys		35
Postal surveys		36
Interview surveys		36
Comparison of the two types of survey		36
Examples of postal surveys		36
Examples of interview surveys		44
General findings of the surveys		50
IV Syllabuses and examinations		53
The syllabus		53
Modes of examining		53
The external examination system		54
The work of the groups on basic-core syllabuses		59
Two projects relating syllabuses to employers' needs		61
V Teaching materials		67
Teacher-oriented examples		67

6 CONTENTS

Pupil-oriented material	71
Other resource material	77
VI Testing and school-leaving certificates	78
The purpose and types of tests	78
Structuring a selection process	81
Preliminary sifting	82
Selection for future performance	85
Three projects producing leaving certificates	86
Four projects producing tests	90
Further reading	100
VII Visits and work experience	101
VIII The wider audience	104
IX Conclusions and recommendations	109
Co-operative organization	109
Surveys	110
Syllabuses	110
Teaching materials	111
Testing and school-leaving certificates	111
Visits and work experience	112
The wider audience	113
General	113
Appendices	115
A Examples of aims and objectives of groups	115
B Approaches to CSE examinations and syllabuses by different boards	117
C Examples of 'basic-core' syllabuses	120
D Three CSE syllabuses	125
E Syllabuses relevant to employers' needs	127
F Subject content for three certificates of arithmetic pro- ficiency	136
Project team and steering committee	140