Table of Contents

Foreword by the editors 7

Introduction 9
References 12

Canada
Introduction 15
1. The cultural context of school education 15
1.1 Culture and family background 15
1.2 Teachers' prestige 17
2. The system level: Structure, process and outcome of the school system as a whole 19
2.1 How the system works 19
2.2 Goals 38
2.3 Evaluation 42
2.4 Evaluation of quality in individual schools 52
3. The school and classroom level: Pedagogical concepts 53
3.1 School structure 53
3.2 Adaptivity / coping with heterogeneity at the classroom level 53
3.3 Integration of children and adolescents with a migration background 55
3.4 Reading advancement 56
3.5 Early Support 60
References 61

England
Introduction 65
1. The cultural context of school education 65
1.1 History, context and administration 66
1.2 Social disadvantage and attainment in England 77
1.3 Initial Teacher Education (ITE) in England 84
1.4 Numbers of teachers, pupil teacher ratios and teacher recruitment 87
2. Educational goals: The National Curriculum and National Assessment 89
2.1 Official information about the National Curriculum 91
2.2 Educational standards: Changes in attainment levels in England – An analysis of trends across 8 years 97
2.3 Pre-school education 100
2.4 Education policy developments 103
3. Evaluation and accountability: Inspection and performance monitoring 110
3.1 An enhanced role for inspection 110
3.2 School governance 119
3.3 School management and funding 124
3.4 School effectiveness and improvement research 130
3.5 Discussion and conclusions 136
References 143

Finland

1.	The cultural context of school education	150
1.1	Finnish education: roots and growth	150
1.2	Strengthening national identity by general education	151
1.3	Towards the comprehensive school	151
1.4	Current educational situation at a glance	153
1.5	Importance of educational issues within family and society	153
1.6	Teachers' social prestige	155
1.7	Participation and investment in education	156
1.8	Effects of family background on students' education	157
1.9	Cultural homogeneity	158
2.	The Finnish Education System: Structure, process, and outcomes of the school system as a whole	159
2.1	How the system works	159
2.2	Educational goals	182
2.3	Evaluation	190
3.	The school and classroom level: Pedagogical concepts	200
3.1	The comprehensive school - also pedagogical philosophy and instructional practice	200
3.2	Adaptivity / coping with heterogeneity at the classroom level	201
3.3	Integration of children and adolescents with a migration background	203
3.4	Reading advancement	206
3.5	Early support	210
3.6	Evaluation of quality in individual schools	212
References		214

France

1.	The cultural context of school education	219
1.1	Importance of education in the public debate	219
1.2	The demand for education and training	220
1.3	Learning outcomes and social disparities	221
1.4	Differences in career strategies and inequalities of success	228
1.5	Collaboration between parents and teachers	229
1.6	Family investment and social background	230
1.7	The image concerning the quality of teaching and schools	234
1.8	Teacher's prestige	238
2.	The system level: Structure, process and outcome of the school system as a whole	239
2.1.	How the system works	239
2.2	The cost of education in schools	245
2.3	Policies to fight learning failure in low-income areas: The priority education zones	251
2.4	Support for students with special educational needs	255
2.5	Challenges for the democratisation of the French education system	259
2.6	Assessment and inspection	261
2.7	Teachers	263
2.8	National goals and PISA goals	268
2.9	Required skills and national programmes	270
2.10	Systems of assessment	272
2.11	Empirical insights into system quality	280
3.	Pedagogical Concepts at the level of schools and the classroom	288
3.1	From the management of heterogeneity to individual support	288
3.2	Methods ensuring individual support	289

3.3	Individual support and teacher training	290
3.4	Results of more individualised teaching	291
3.5	Reading instruction	292
3.6	Assessment of quality in individual schools	294
References		296

Germany

1.	On the cultural context of the education system	298
1.1	The general cultural context	298
1.2	The roles of family and school	300
1.3	Values and attitudes and their influence on education	302
2.	The system level: Structures, processes and outcomes	304
2.1	Organisation of the school system, use of resources and heterogeneity at the system level	304
2.2	Support systems	314
2.3	Teacher training	318
2.4	Concept and purpose of education (Bildung)	323
2.5	Educational standards	328
2.6	Current reform and innovation strategies	332
2.7	Assessments	336
3.	The school and classroom level: pedagogical concepts, integration, support, quality	347
3.1	School life and organisation of the individual school	347
3.2	Dealing with heterogeneity in the classroom	351
3.3	Children and adolescents with a migrant background	355
3.4	Development of reading literacy	359
3.5	Early recognition and early support	363
3.6	Evaluation and quality of the individual schools	366
References		372

The Netherlands

Introduction		386
1.	The cultural context of school education	386
1.1	Importance of educational issues within families and society	386
1.2	The effect of family background on the student's education	390
1.3	Teacher's prestige	391
2.	The system level	393
2.1	How the system works	393
2.2	Goals	408
2.3	Evaluation	412
3.	School and classroom level	423
3.1	All day schooling	423
3.2	Adaptivity / coping with heterogeneity at the classroom level	424
3.3	Integration of children and adolescents with a migration background	425
3.4	Reading advancement	425
3.5	Early support	425
4.	Executive summary and conclusions	426
References		427

Sweden

1.	The cultural context of school education	430
1.1	Historical background	430
1.2	Culture and family background	434

1.3	How does the family background affect students' education?	435
1.4	Teachers and Teaching	436
2.	The system level: Structure, process and outcome of the school system as a whole	436
2.1	How the system works	436
2.2	Goals	452
2.3	Evaluation	465
3.	The school and classroom level: Pedagogical concepts	477
3.1	School structure	477
3.2	Adaptivity/coping with heterogeneity at the classroom level	478
3.3	Integration of children and adolescents with a migration background	478
3.4	Reading advancement	479
3.5	Early support	479
References		479

Authors of the Country Reports 484