

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The OECD Examiners and the Swedish Delegation	9
---	---

Part One

THE SWEDISH WAY TOWARDS A LEARNING SOCIETY

The background report prepared by the Swedish authorities

Introduction	13
Chapter 1 Setting the Frame -- Introduction, Facts and Figures	15
Introducing Sweden as a learning society	15
Education and the modernisation of Sweden	15
The social impact of education	16
A bird's eye view on educational reforms in Sweden	16
The country and its people	18
The people	19
The political system	24
Industrial transformation and modernisation of society	27
The creation of a modern welfare society	29
"Immigrant groups" or a new ethnic composition	36
Sweden and the European integration	37
The Swedish education system	39
Some general features	39
Pre-school and after-school centres	40
Compulsory school	42
Upper secondary school	48
Municipal follow-up responsibilities	52
The higher education system	52
Adult education	61
Immigrants in education	64
Teacher training	64

Financial assistance for education	66
Educational leave of absence	69
Students and teachers in Swedish education -- an overview	70
Access and equality in education in retrospect	71
Drop-out levels in youth and higher education	79
Public investment in education -- an overview	81

Chapter 2 Educational Policy and Development up to Autumn 1991 85

Introduction: Educational policy in a societal context	85
New institutional responses	85
Public and private sectors	87
Key questions	88

Education for children and youth	88
Compulsory school	88
Upper secondary school	95
Development of organisation	98

Further education	100
Higher education	100
Adult education	110

Some conclusions and remarks at system level	113
A comparative preamble	113
The volume of education in a comparative context	115
Comparing levels of education	120
Assessing the quality of education	121
Education, productivity and future demand	125
The impact of education and citizenship and productivity	132

Chapter 3 Heading for the Future 135

Challenges and problems for the year 2000	135
Points of departure	135
New patterns of freedom of learning	135
Strengthening quality in an international context	139

Appendices	149
Sources and References	169

THE EXAMINERS' REPORT

Introduction	181
Chapter 1 Continuity and Change in Educational Policy	184
The inherited tradition	184
Shifts in policy: decentralisation	185
New policy concepts, objectives and priorities	187
Questions raised	189
Chapter 2 Schools and Adult Education	195
Compulsory schooling and upper secondary education	195
New policy initiatives	196
Decentralisation: quality and equality	198
Evaluation: steering by goals	199
A new mix of relationships	201
Pedagogical innovation: the great absentee	202
Choice	203
Focusing schools on academic content	206
Adult education at the crossroads	210
Chapter 3 Higher Education	213
Quantitative development and the demand for graduates	214
Costs, expenditures and financing	216
Access and admission to higher education	218
Institutional patterns in higher education	221
Study programmes	224
Teaching and learning in higher education	226
New international challenges	229
Governance of higher education	231
Chapter 4 Summary and Issues for Discussion	239