

Contents

FOREWORD
Professor Joseph J. Schwab, Fellow of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, Santa Barbara, California, and William Rainey Harper, Professor of the Natural Sciences, University of Chicago	vii
PREFACE	ix
The Editors and the Contributors	xiii
1 Stability and Change: the Public Schools of Gary, Indiana, 1940-70 W. Lynn McKinney and Ian Westbury	i
2 Negotiating Curriculum Change in a College of Education K. E. Shaw	54
3 Curriculum Development in an Art Project Decker F. Walker	91
4 The Head Teacher as Innovator: a Study of an English School District N. B. Dickinson	136
5 Handling Innovation in the Classroom: Two Scottish Examples David Hamilton	179
6 The Diffusion of Keynesian Macroeconomics through American High School Textbooks, 1936-70 Herbert W. Voegelé	208
7 The Changing Curriculum: Theory and Practice William A. Reid	240
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY	260
INDEX	265