

Contents

Acknowledgements page ix

Part One	Interactions between Employment and Education: the Impulse from Employers	1
1	Educational Reform and Selection for Employment – an Overview Ronald Dore and John Oxenham	3
2	Employers, Jobs and Qualifications John Oxenham	41
3	Education, Earnings and Productivity – the Eternal Triangle Angela Little	87
Part Two	The Effects of Selection on Education	111
4	Selection and Curriculum Reform Keith Lewin	115
5	The Influence of Certification and Selection on Teaching and Learning Nigel Brooke and John Oxenham	147
6	Severing the Links between Education and Careers: the Sobering Experience of China's Urban Schools Jonathan Unger	176

viii/Education versus Qualifications?

Part Three	Reconciling Efficient Selection with Good Education and Equity	193
7	Combating the Diploma Disease Angela Little	197
	References	229
	Index	242