

Contents

Constructional approaches to language-particular description Nikolas Gisborne and Graeme Trousdale	1
1. The English gerund
Gerunds, categories and constructions.....	7
Approaches to the English gerund Bas Aarts	11
Constructions in grammaticalization and lexicalization: Evidence from the history of a composite predicate construction in English Graeme Trousdale	33
2. Constructions and corpora
Corpus approaches to constructions.....	71
English relative clauses and Construction Grammar: A topic which preposition placement can shed light on? Thomas Hoffmann	77
Shall and shan't in contemporary English – a case of functional condensation Alexander Bergs	113
Constraints on the attributive use of “predicative-only” adjectives: A reassessment Julia Schlüter	145

3. Constructions and lexicalism

Constructions and lexical approaches..... 183

Antitransitivity and constructionality
Andrew Rosta..... 187

Dependencies are constructions: A case study in predicative complementation
Nikolas Gisborne..... 219

Word Grammar and Construction Grammar
Richard Hudson..... 257

Author index..... 303

Subject index..... 308