

Contents

	Foreword by Professor M. H. Abdulaziz	vi
	Introduction	xvi
	Using the Book	xxii
Unit	1 Hujambo? 'How are you?'	1
	I Simple greetings and responses. Forms of address. Asking after others.	1
	II Negative verbal subject prefixes, all persons. Personal Pronouns. -ote . Statements. Vocatives. Simple questions.	4
	III Exercises.	6
	IV Conventions for addressing people.	7
	2 Habari? 'What's new?'	9
	I Further greetings and enquiries; responses. Equating two ideas.	9
	II Intensification. Qualification. Subject following verb. Equasion. 'Prepositional' -a . z- concord noted.	11
	III Exercises.	11
	IV Swahili day length.	12
	3 Lakini . . . But . . .	13
	I Conveying bad news and offering condolence. Saying goodbye. Some expressions of emotion.	13
	II Word stress. Qualifiers without heads. Infinitive verb. Nouns of class 9/10 with y-/z- concord. Copula ndiyo .	15
	III Exercises. Dialogues.	16
	IV Social communication.	18
	Revision.	18
	4 Matamshi . Pronunciation.	20
	I Implosive b, d, and g.	20
	II Description of pronunciation.	20
	III Further practice.	21
	IV Dialect variation.	21
	5 Matamshi . Pronunciation.	22
	I Pronunciation of j.	22
	II Description of pronunciation. Distribution of implosives. Contrast implosive-explosive.	22
	III More practice.	23
	Revision.	23

Contents

6	Wapi? Where?	24
	I How to ask about and describe people's whereabouts. How to agree and disagree politely.	24
	II Locative suffix -ni ; exceptions. Ndiyo, siyo , agreement/disagreement. Place copula -ko with 3rd person singular and plural, positive and negative. Wapi?	31
	III Exercises. Game — 'Spot the lady'.	32
	IV Polite conversation.	33
7	Wapi hasa? Where precisely?	35
	I Precise versus general place. Inside. Some idiomatic uses of place copulas. Who?	35
	II Interrogative nani? -po, -mo , all persons, positive and negative. Siyo as copula.	38
	III Exercises. World map, travel game.	38
	IV Place and state. Gradation of terms of address. Naming.	40
	Revision.	41
8	Matamishi . Pronunciation.	44
	I Swahili vowels a, i, u.	44
	II Spelling of vowels. Vowel chart.	46
	III More practice.	47
	IV Problems for native English speakers.	47
9	Matamshi . Pronunciation.	48
	I Swahili vowels e and o. Allophones. Adjacent vowels.	48
	II Allophones plotted. 5 vs. 7 vowel systems.	50
	III More practice.	51
	Revision.	51
10	Ngapi? How many?	54
	I Counting, asking and telling the date, time, how much money, how many children.	54
	II Ordinal/cardinal numbers. ni, si copulas. -na possession, positive and negative. Class 9/10 cf. class 1/2 nouns, singular and plural. Number concords for animates.	58
	III Exercises. Money guessing game.	60
	IV Swahili times, dates, seasons, money, children.	62
11	Matamshi . Pronunciation.	65
	I Nasal consonants m, n, ɲ , ŋ . Stressed and syllabic nasals.	65
	II Description of pronunciation of ɲ . Distribution of ŋ .	67
	III More practice.	67

12	Kupika chai . Making tea.	68
I	Getting people to do things, and telling them not to. Asking and suggesting. Greetings and farewells on visiting people at home.	68
II	Imperative singular and plural. Subjunctive, positive and negative, all persons.	71
III	Exercises. Begin to make own grammar book. A tea-party.	72
IV	Conventions for social calls.	74
13	Kununua mahindi . Buying maize.	76
I	Asking why and giving a reason. Expressing a wish. Describing present action; more than one. 'There is (not). . .'	76
II	More place expressions. kuna, hakuna . - na - tense. - ku - stress carrier. Linkage by na + infinitive. na plus subjunctive. nami etc. Irregular forms of - enda and - ja . Uses of kali . Verbs of wishing etc. + infinitive.	78
III	Exercises. Shopping game.	80
IV	Shopping in markets.	82
14	Sokoni . At the market. Matamshi ya kiarabu . Arabic-type pronunciation.	84
I	Useful expressions for haggling. Arabic-influenced pronunciation.	84
II	General negative.	86
III	Exercises.	87
IV	Prestige of Arabic; influence. Alternative pronunciations. Refusing an offer.	87
	Revision.	88
15	Kwenda Mombasa (1) . Going to Mombasa (1).	90
I	Useful expressions in connection with travel, buying tickets, etc.	90
II	Infinitive vs. subjunctive for intention, after verbs of wishing etc. Placement of negative. Negative infinitive. Introduction to class 5. kwa + noun for travel.	92
III	Comprehension. Exercises. Loan words. Composition.	93
IV	Different modes of travel in East Africa.	96
16	Kwenda Mombasa (2) . Behewa la kulalia . In the sleeping-car.	98
I	Sleeping and dining on trains.	98
II	Noun classes 5/6, 7/8 and 9/10. Possessive adjectives with classes 5, 7, 9/10, 16. ndi- plus	101

Contents

	persons, as copula. Prepositional extension of verbs. Vowel harmony.
	III Comprehension. Exercises. Composition.	105
	IV Social behaviour between the sexes.	107
17	Jamaa . The family. Matamshi:mkazo . Pronunciation: stress.	111
	I Family relationships. Introducing and being introduced.	111
	II Possessive adjectives with animates. Contracted forms. -a with classes 1/2, 5/6, 7/8, 9/10. Possessive adjectives and -a with classes 16/17/18. Reciprocal extension. Prepositional plus reciprocal extension. Group stress.	112
	III Pronunciation. Exercises. Game: Happy Families. Family tree game.	113
	IV The Swahili extended family.	118
18	Mwoga . The coward.	121
	I Gossip, telling a tale, teasing.	121
	II Object prefixes, all persons. Subject and object prefixes classes 5/6, 7/8, 9/10. Use of object prefixes. Tenses -me- and -ja- .	122
	III Comprehension. Exercises. Game: 'Hunt the thimble'.	124
	IV Attitude shown in grammar. Oral performance.	127
19	Kudanganywa! Cheated! Matamshi . Pronunciation.	128
	I An Awful Warning. Pronunciation — aspiration.	128
	II Place subject with -na . Classes 3/4, 11(14), 15. Adjectival agreements, all classes, 'Comparison' of adjectives. Rules for class 9/10 agreements. Aspiration.	130
	III Comprehension. Exercises. Dice game: 'At Home'. Pronunciation.	134
	IV Some gestures.	137
20	Kutodanganywa . Not being cheated.	139
	I A counter-ploy.	139
	II Negative infinitive. Demonstratives. Reduplication. Lengthening of final syllable. -pi? -je? Adjectival vs. pronominal class prefixes. Sequence of qualifiers.	140
	III Comprehension. Concord chart. Exercises.	143
	IV 'Them and us'.	147
	Revision.	148

21	Lini? When?	149
	I Past and future time. Making arrangements; invitations.	149
	II Tenses -ta- and -li- ; negative future and past. -li- and -me- tenses compared; past negative and -ja- compared. kwamba , kama and reported speech. Position of reported clauses.	150
	III Composition. Exercises.	151
	IV Time and state. The Swahili as travellers.	152
22	Nchi yetu . Our country.	154
	I The Kenyan and Tanzanian national anthems.	154
	II Copula kuwa ; function with other copulas as tense-carrier; function as auxiliary in compound tenses.	157
	III Singing. Exercises. Crossword puzzles.	156
	IV Problems of national unity in East Africa. Swahili as a national language.	158
23	Ajali . An accident.	160
	I A car accident. Expressing concern.	160
	II -ka- tense. Passive extension. -enye	161
	III Composition. Exercises.	164
	IV Fatalism. Proverbs.	165
24	Ugonjwa . Illness.	167
	I Illnesses; parts of the body. In hospital.	167
	II -ki- and -sipo- tenses. Reversive extension. Verbs of prohibition plus negative. -o , -ote . Address by relationship.	169
	III Exercises. Proverbs. Game: 'Pains'.	171
	IV Traditional versus modern medicine. Attitudes to illness.	173
25	Kuazima na kuazimia . Borrowing and lending.	175
	I Possession; borrowing and lending.	175
	II Close possession. -na- plus object relative suffix. 'Direct and indirect' object; sequence. Range of uses of prepositional extension. Uses of -piga . -nge- tense for 'would'.	176
	III Exercises	179
	IV Ideas of ownership and possession.	181
	Revision.	182
26	Kwenda Tamarind . Going to the Tamarind.	183
	I Giving directions.	183
	II ndi- with classes 3-18. Dependent clauses of time and manner. Adverbial uses of prefixes of class 7/8. -a- tense. si for emphasis. kulia , kushoto .	186

Contents

	III Town plan comprehension. Exercises. Orientation games.	188
	IV Going out. Entertainment and festivals.	190
27	Barua . A letter.	192
	I Conventions for letter-writing. An actual example.	192
	II More conventions. Some word-division and spelling problems. Relative markers in verbs.	195
	III Sayings. Exercises. Writing a letter.	199
	IV The client-protector relationship. Accepting offers.	202
28	Malaika . Angel.	203
	I Pop songs.	203
	II mwenzangu etc. -nge- tense positive and negative. hu- tense. 'so + adjective + that . . . .'	203
	III Singing. Exercises. 'Consequences'.	205
	IV Music among the Swahili, traditional and modern.	206
29	Kukata umeme . Electricity cut off.	208
	I Encounter with officialdom. Finding one's way about in Nairobi.	208
	II -ngali- tense, positive and negative. Different forms of the negative.	209
	III Exercises. Games with plan of Nairobi.	210
	IV Urbanisation and town life problems. 'Housewarming'.	214
	Revision.	217
30	Haraka haraka haina baraka . More haste less speed.	218
	I Speeding and a brush with the police.	218
	II Causative extension. Agreement copula. Non-relative subordinate time clauses. Note on lack of 'dummy' verbs in Swahili.	221
	III Exercises. Translation.	225
	IV Attitudes to time. Concepts of being. Authority. Necessity.	226
31	Kuibiwa . A robbery.	229
	I Making a statement.	229
	II Stative extension.	232
	III Re-telling. Exercises. Composition.	233
	IV Concepts of crime and sin. Ways of dealing with them.	235
32	Ziara . A visit.	237
	I Making a formal visit.	237
	II amba- , forms and usage.	239
	III Exercises.	241
	IV Community relations. 'Face'.	242

33	Nyota . Your stars.	244
	I Astrology.	244
	II Style — popular journalese. Noun class 'meanings'. Word derivation, especially nouns from verbs. Arabic derivations.	246
	III Deverbative noun chart. Exercises. Translation. Deduction.	250
	IV Contemporary preoccupations.	251
34	Mwanasesere . The doll.	253
	I A passage from contemporary Swahili fiction.	253
	II Style — loan words from Arabic. Multiple verbal extensions. Topic. Reduplication.	255
	III Exercises. Verbal structure chart. Arabic loans.	257
	IV Brief introduction to Swahili literature. A poem of Muyaka.	258
35	Mpira . Football.	261
	I Some games described.	261
	II Style — highly idiomatic. Formation of loan words from English, cf. structure of Bantu words in Swahili.	263
	III Loan words. Translation.	265
	IV Limit of language — more gestures.	265
	P.S. What now?	267
	Appendix — passages for reading and translation	268
	Reference charts	276
	Key to exercises	280
	Bibliography	313
	Index	315