

DEVELOPMENT EDUCATION IN CANADA IN THE EIGHTIES CONTEXT, CONSTRAINTS, CHOICES

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial: The State of the Art of Development Education	Mathew Zachariah	5
---	------------------	---

CONTEXT

A Critical History of Development Education in Canada	Jean Christie	8
Summary of Major Findings and Recommendations of A National Study	Maureen Hollingworth	21
Development Education in Other Western Nations	Robin Burns	33
Development Education: Some International Perspectives	Angus Archer	53

CONSTRAINTS

Autonomous Initiatives	Michael Belliveau	65
Seeing Global Issues Through Local Eyes	Pat Mooney	77
Institutional Constraints and Opportunities	Bernard Wood	87

CHOICES

Universities and Development Education in Canada: An Open Agenda	Wilma Van Berkel	97
"I Am Not a Peacenick": Adult Learning of Development Education in English Speaking Canada	Budd L. Hall	111
Evaluating the Impact of Development Education	Charles Lusthaus Gary Anderson Cecil Welch	121

EXPERIENCES AND INSIGHTS

Mass Media: Friend and Foe	Waldo Neufeld	135
One Sky Cross Cultural Centre, Saskatoon	Bill Robb	143
Doing Development Education with Labour	Christine Smillie	149
University College of Cape Breton's Program	Brian Tennyson	153
Canada-Jamaica Educator Exchanges	Edward H. Humphreys Peter E. Angelini	159
From Reflection to Commitment	Bruce Moore	165
Camrose One World Institute	W.J. Gibson Ruth E. Vikse	171

RESOURCES AND REVIEWS

Development Education in Canada: A Bibliography	Esha R. Chaudhuri and Jaswinder Gundara	175
"Critical Teaching and Everyday Life"	William E. Goding	195
"Development Education: The 20th Century Survival and Fulfillment Skill"	LeRoi Daniels	199
Glossary of Terms and Acronyms		205
Reader's Comment Form		207
Contributors to this Issue		211
Conference Program		213