
Contents

Foreword	xi
Clark Kerr
Preface	xiii
The Author	xvii
Part One: The Setting	1
1. Efficiency and Accountability in Higher Education	3
American Higher Education as a System • Functions of Higher Education • Production in Higher Education • Efficiency • Are the Outcomes of Higher Education Ascertainable? • Boundaries
2. Goals: The Intended Outcomes of Higher Education	31
Goals for Individual Students Through Education • Social Goals of Higher Education • Negative Outcomes • A Catalogue of Goals • I. Goals for Individual Students • II. Goals for Society
Part Two: Consequences for Individuals	61
3. Cognitive Learning	63
Verbal and Quantitative Skills • Substantive Knowledge • Rationality • Intellectual

Tolerance • Esthetic Sensibility • Creativeness • Intellectual Integrity • Wisdom • Intellectual and Cultural Pursuits of Students • Lifelong Learning • Conclusions • Appendix: The Estimation of Differences

4. Emotional and Moral Development 104

Change in Values and Aspirations • Personal Self-Discovery • Psychological Well-Being • Human Understanding • Values and Morals • Religious Interest • Refinement of Taste, Conduct, Manners • Changes in Masculinity and Femininity • Conclusions

5. Practical Competence for Citizenship and Economic Productivity 137

General Traits of Value in Practical Affairs • Citizenship • Economic Productivity • Conclusions

6. Practical Competence for Family Life, Consumer Behavior, Leisure, and Health 189

The Family • Consumer Behavior • Leisure • Health • Conclusions: College Education and Practical Competence

7. The Whole Person 219

A Review of Findings • The Student as a Whole Human Being • Future Research • Client Evaluation • Evaluation by Students • Evaluation by Alumni • Evaluation by the General Public • Conclusions

8. Similarities and Differences Among Institutions 236

Cognitive Outcomes • Noncognitive Outcomes • Institutional Characteristics as Related to Outcomes • Student and Alumni Evaluation of Their Colleges • Conclusions

Part Three: Consequences for Society	261
9. Societal Outcomes from Education	263
The Ethos of Higher Education • Some Probable Social Changes Derived from Higher Education • The 1960s: A Case History • The Discontents of Our Time and Social Progress • Professional Training • Conclusions
10. Societal Outcomes from Research and Public Service	289
Research and Public Service in Higher Education • Scholarship • Scientific Research: The Natural Sciences • Scientific Research: Social Studies • Philosophical and Religious Inquiry • Social Criticism • Public Policy Analysis • Cultivation of Literature and the Fine Arts • Direct Public Services • Conclusions
11. Progress Toward Human Equality	325
A Theory of Equality of Opportunity • Education and Human Equality • Higher Education and the Distribution of Income • Educability • Conclusions
12. Economic Returns on Investments in Higher Education	359
Gordon K. Douglass
Physical and Human Capital • Private Monetary Returns • Nonmonetary Returns • Higher Education and Economic Growth • Conclusions
13. Views of Social Critics	388
Peter Clecak
Social Criticism and Social Science • Radical Critics • The Mainstream • Conclusions

Part Four: Conclusions 429

14. Is Higher Education Worth the Cost? 431

Outcomes as Specific Changes in Individuals
 • Outcomes as Changes in the Personality Structure of Individuals • The Whole Person
 • The Worth of Changes in Individuals •
Outcomes as Consumer Satisfaction •
Outcomes as Changes in Society • Conclusions: The Consequences of Higher Education

15. The Future of American Higher Education 449

The Current Debate • A Moral Imperative •
Some Practical Considerations • Conclusions: A Possible Future for Higher Education

References 461

Name Index 493

Subject Index 499