

Contents

Acknowledgements	V
Hartmut Schröder Linguistic and Text-theoretical Research on Languages for Special Purposes. A thematic and bibliographical guide	1
Michael Clyne The Sociocultural Dimension: The Dilemma of the German-speaking Scholar	49
Peter Glas The Symbolic Mode and Secondary Constitution of Meaning. Cultural Semiotic Comments on an Advertisement of the German WWF	68
Rosemarie Gläser Communication in Literary Studies as LSP	85
Claus Gnutzmann and Hermann Oldenburg Contrastive Text Linguistics in LSP-Research: Theoretical Considera- tions and some Preliminary Findings	103
Karlheinz Hengst Functional Macro-Analysis of Specialist Text Forms — A Research- method Derived from Foreign Language Teaching	137
Lothar Hoffmann Texts and Text Types in LSP	158
Marja-Liisa Kakkuri-Knuuttila and Martin Kusch LSP-Research, Philosophy of Science, and the Question-Theoretical Approach — some Tentative Suggestions	167
Robert Kaplan and William Grabe The Fiction in Science Writing	199
Christer Laurén and Marianne Nordman Corpus Selection in LSP Research	218
Lita Lundquist Some Considerations on the Relations between Text Linguistics and the Study of Texts for Specific Purposes	231

Juan C. Sager
A Theory of Text Production, Modification, Reception	244
Dieter Viehweger
Lexical Knowledge and Text Interpretation	254
Siegfried Weber
Communicative Acts and the Constitution of Scientific and Technical Texts	267
Summaries	305
List of Contributors	315
Subject Index	317
Name Index	320