

Contents

viii Acknowledgements

ix Preface

ONE

1 Tradition and Innovation

1 Technical innovation, modernity and the 'history of styles'

1 Originality, modernity and facture

3 Artisan, professional and amateur

5 Landscape art, plein airisme and the oil-painted étude

7 Plein air and modernity

9 Urban modernity and the rise of landscape painting

10 New methods for old

11 The étude and the modern public:
the aesthetics of non fini

12 Languages of modern painting:
technique and the critics

TWO

15 The Blank Canvas

15 Stretchers or strainers

18 Standardised support sizes – a question of economics?

19 Loom-widths

21 Non-standard canvases – square and double-square

25 Prepared paper

27 Academy board or carton

THREE

30 Canvas, Texture and Materiality

30 Canvas fabrics

31 Canvas weaves, weights and textures

35 Etude and pochade canvas

37 Twill weaves

44 Basket weaves

FOUR

50 Grounds for Oil Painting

50 Size

52 Absorbent grounds

52 The revival of absorbent grounds

57 Oil grounds

FIVE

62 Ground Colours and the Paint Layer

AN INTRODUCTION TO GROUND COLOURS

62 White versus coloured grounds

65 Grounds and the palette

66 Tinted and coloured grounds

66 Tinted commercial primings

67 Unprimed canvas

IMPRESSIONIST GROUNDS AND THE PAINT LAYER

68 Identifying and analysing the Impressionists' grounds

70 Grounds and pictorial luminosity

70 Tinted grounds and colouristic effects

82 White grounds and bright plein air light

SIX

86 Light of Reason, Shades of Meaning

86 Clair-obscur and tonal values

88 Clair-obscur and the politics of genius

89 Technical problems of clair-obscur handling

91 The sauce

91 Loading the shadows

94 Lustre

SEVEN

- 98 The Matter of Impressionism
- 98 Impressionism and modern paint technology
- 98 Colour grinding
- 100 Additives and extenders
- 100 Oil binders and painting media
- 103 Impressionist colours and colourmen
- 105 Modern paint containers
- 107 The matter of painting

EIGHT

- 111 Making Light Modern
- 111 Studios: wall colours and lighting
- 117 Industrial lights: from gas to glass
- 122 Rendering light modern
- 124 Affecting outdoor light
- 126 Parasols and plein air painting
- 130 Outdoor lights: visual effects and pictorial meaning
- 131 Side light
- 131 Contrejour, full-face and midday light
- 132 Gris-clair light

NINE

- 136 The Palette: from Tonal to Spectral
- 136 Towards a peinture claire
- 137 Artists' palettes before 1850
- 138 Palette layout and pre-mixing
- 141 The limited palette
- 146 Green pigments
- 147 Yellows, oranges, reds, violets and blues
- 149 Blacks and whites
- 150 Earth colours and 'broken' colours; 'coloured' greys
- 151 The spectral palette

TEN

- 156 'Artless' Simplicity
- 157 Painting au premier coup
- 161 Palettes and paintings
- 163 The coloured ébauche
- 169 Brushwork: coloured taches, scumble and pleine pâte
- 174 Brushes

ELEVEN

- 177 The Colour of Modernity
- 177 Modernity, plein air light and the Impressionist palette
- 177 Opacity and transparency: 'film' colour
- 182 Composition, space and flatness; viewpoint and point of distance
- 186 Local colour, light and colour temperature
- 186 Atmosphere, light and air: pictorial unity and the enveloppe

TWELVE

- 191 Framing the Debate
- 191 Picture frames: setting the parameters
- 193 Disrupting the boundaries
- 201 Painting frames
- 201 Viewing distance
- 202 Setting the scene: frames and gallery installation
- 209 Varnish: layers of meaning
- 210 Varnish effects
- 211 Tinted varnishes and waxes
- 212 The politics of varnish
- 212 Glass versus varnish
- 214 'Primitivism', mattness and modernity
- 217 Glossary
- 220 Notes
- 232 Bibliography
- 238 Index
- 245 Picture Credits