

CONTENTS

Preface .....	5
I. LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND LINGUISTIC THEORY
Elisabeth Bates/Brian MacWhinney/Stan Smith Pragmatics and Syntax in Psycholinguistic Research .....	11
Helen Leuninger Markedness, Modularity, and Functional Explanations .....	31
Michael Sharwood Smith On Explaining Language Loss .....	49
II. SECOND LANGUAGE ACQUISITION
Howard Nicholas & Jürgen M. Meisel Second Language Acquisition: The State of the Art .....	63
Sharon Lapkin The Assessment of Second Language Skills in a Canadian French Immersion Context .....	91
Patsy M. Lightbown Acquiring English L <sub>2</sub> in Quebec Classrooms .....	101
Kari Sajavaara Second Language Acquisition in a Formal Setting: Theoretical and Methodological Considerations within the Finnish-English Cross-Language Project .....	121
III. FOREIGN LANGUAGE TEACHING
Gert Solmecke Foreign Language Teaching: The State of the Art .....	137
Werner Hüllen On Some Didactic Consequences from Insights into the Mechanism of Language Acquisition and Language Learning .....	145
Robert Bannert Phonological Variation and Language Teaching .....	151
Kenneth Hyltenstam Teacher Talk in Swedish as a Second Language Classrooms. Quantitative Aspects and Markedness Conditions .....	173
Edwin Hopkins The Article and Learner Strategy in the English Interlanguage of German Learners .....	189

IV. LANGUAGE PSYCHOLOGY

Margret Wintermantel

Psychology of Language: The State of the Art . . . . . 213

Ute Schönplflug

Long Term Retention Related to the Use of Multiple Languages:
Some Findings and a New Approach . . . . . 221

Kenji Hakuta

Grammar in Minds of Adults, Children, and Linguists . . . . . 229