

Glossary of Phonetic Symbols	XIV
Introduction	1
1. Attachment, Interaction and Communitive Behaviour	4
The Neonatal Period	5
Mother to Child	5
Child to Mother	6
Early Opportunities for Interaction	8
The Infant's Recognition of the Face	9
The Smile	11
Patterns of Interaction	12
Mutual Gaze	12
Modulation of Interaction	13
Facial Expressions and Their Part in Interaction	13
Interaction and Emotional Development	14
The Elaboration of a Communication System.	16
Awareness of Strangers	16
Separation and the Objects of Attachement	17
Communitive Behaviour	18
Interrelation in Activity.	19
2. The Emergence of the Objective World. Sensory Processing and Motor Activity	22
Sensory and Perceptual Development	24
Vision	24
Visual Perception	25
Visual Behaviour	25
Hearing	25
Frequency of Sound Stimulus	28
Duration of Sound	29

Hearing Behaviour	29
The Perception of Speech and Speechlike Sounds	30
Motor Development	32
Control of the Position and Movement of the Head	32
Touch, Reach and Grasp	34
The Use of the Hands	34
3. The Emergence of the Objective World. The World Made Sensible	37
The Object	37
Space	37
Cause and Effect	42
The Nature of the Child's Environment	45
Imitation	46
Play	49
4. Vocal Behaviour and the Origins of Speech.	52
The Cry	52
Early Vocal Behaviour	54
Terminology	54
The Recorded Material	55
Chronological Sections of Vocal Behaviour	56
5. The Early Development of Language	118
The One Word Utterance	120
The Meanings of Words	121
The Holophrase	123
Speech Acts.	124
The Nature and Purposes of Language	125
Interaction with Mother.	126
The Child's Understanding of the Spoken Word.	128
Two and Three Word Utterances.	129
6. Deficit and Delay in the Development of Spoken Language	136
Prevalence of Disorder	136
The Nature of Society's Response	138
The Emotional Effect of Impaired Communication	139
The Detection of Delay	140
The "Cause" of Delay and Disorder	140
The Antecedents of Disorder	143
The Nature of Developmental Delay	144
The Pattern and Extent of the Disability	144
The Child's Speech and Language	144
Assessment	145
The Approach to the Child	146
The Child's Understanding of Speech	146
Method of Scaling Disability	149

7. The Antecedents of Disorder. Reception and Comprehension	151
Hearing	152
The Nature of the Handicap	153
Hearing Disorder in the Absence of Loss	155
Impaired Auditory Processing and Speech Perception	158
Sequential, Auditory Memory	158
Auditory and Sequential Memory in the Deaf	159
Cognitive Function	159
The Relation Between "Intelligence" and Language Attainment	160
Mental Handicap and Intelligence	161
Language Characteristics in the Mentally Handicapped.	162
Play and Cognitive Deficit	163
XThe Importance of Pretend Play	165
Elements and Classes: Categorization	165
Directed Attention	166
Cognitive Dysfunction and Verbal Comprehension	166
Case Report	167
8. The Antecedents of Disorder. Voice, Speech and Language	170
Voice	170
Case Reports	170
Speech	176
The Tongue.	177
Neuro-Motor Dysfunction	178
Spoken Language	180
Case Report	180
Phonological Disorder	181
Language Production.	183
Case Report	185
Familial and Hereditary Factors	186
9. The Antecedents of Disorder. Communication	188
Case Report	188
Parents	189
The Child	191
XPatterns of Disordered Interaction	192
Case Report	195
Mutism of Emotional Origin	195
Case Report	196
Hearing Loss	197
Mental Handicap	198
The Nature of Language Production.	198
References	201
Subject Index	207