

Contents

Preface

Looking Beyond Bilingualism	7
-----------------------------------	---

Introduction

Charlotte Hoffmann

The Status of Trilingualism in Bilingualism Studies	13
---	----

1. Sociocultural Considerations

1. Marsha Bensoussan

Language Issues for Immigrant Students from the Former Soviet Union in Israel and Germany	29
--	----

2. David Lasagabaster

University Students' Attitudes Towards English as an L3	43
---	----

2. Effects of Bilingualism on L3-Aquisition

3. Bernd Finger

The Propedeutic Effect of Esperanto	53
---	----

4. Yoko Okita, Guo Jun Hai

Learning of Japanese Kanji Character by Bilingual and Monolingual Chinese Speakers	63
---	----

5. Joseba González-Ardeo

Engineering Students and ESP in the Basque Country: SLA vs. TLA	75
---	----

6. Danuta Gabryś

A Cross-Cultural Aspect of the Interaction of Languages in the Mental Lexicon of Multilingual Learners	97
---	----

3. Teaching Methodologies and Learning Strategies

7. Larissa Aronin

Teaching English Reading Comprehension at the University of Haifa: Effect of Listening Comprehension Reinforcement on Different L3 Student Populations.....	111
---	-----

8. Barbara Hinger

An Intensive Multilingual Approach to Language Acquisition in School Context	121
---	-----

9. Gonzalo Isidro Bruno

Metacognitive Reading Awareness of Trilingual Readers in Barcelona.....	137
---	-----

10. Muiris Ó Laoire
Balanced Bilingual and L1-Dominant Learners of L3 in Ireland: A Case Study	153
11. Carol Spöttl
Expanding Students' Mental Lexicons. A Multilingual Student Perspective.....	161
 Conclusion
Nicole Marx
Looking Beyond and Looking Forward	179
 List of Contributors.....	181