Preface ix

1. The Problem	1
Reading for Comprehension	1
Readability of Reading Materials	2
Material Factors	3
Subject Factors	4
Interaction	5
A New Measuring Technique	5
Statement of Problem	7
Setting of Experiments	8
2. Foreign Language Testing and Cloze Procedure	10
Testing in a Foreign Language	10
Rationale of Cloze Procedure	12
Generalized Communication Model	14
Language Communication Model	15
The Contribution of Psycholinguistics	16
Cloze Procedure as a Measure of Reading Comprehension	18
Cloze Procedure as a Measure of Readability	19
Information Theory Approach to Language Study	19
3. Research on Cloze Procedure	21
Studies of the Source System	22
Studies of the Noise System	23
Frequency of Word Deletions	23
Type of Word Deletions	25
Number of Deletions	27
Scoring Procedures	27
Studies of the Message System	28
Studies of the Receiver System	30
Measurement of Language Correspondence	31
Readability Measurement	31
Measurement of Comprehension	35
Prospect	41
4. The First Experiment	42
Design of the Experiment	42
Passages	42
Subjects	43
Test Instructions	43
Instructions for Administration of Cloze Tests	44
Scoring Methods	46
Scoring and Statistical Procedures	46
Results	47
Discussion	49
Summary	50

5. Two Experiments on Noise	51
Development of Hypotheses	51
Kind of Noise	51
Noise Frequency	53
Selection of Standardized Test	54
Construction of Cloze Tests	55
Subjects	58
Experimental Design	58
Administration of Tests	59
Results	60
Experiment 2	60
Discussion	62
Experiment 3	62
Discussion	66
Summary	67
6. Development of a Test of Reading Comprehension	69
Origin	69
Try-out Testing	69
Item Analysis	70
Instructions for Giving the Cloze Reading Comprehension Test	76
Instruction to Teachers	76
Test Instructions	76
Directions for Marking	78
Answers	79
Interpreting Test Scores	80
Raw Scores	80
Reading Grade Levels	80
Examples	81
Important Note	81
Technical Information	84
Standardization of Test	84
Validity Studies	85
Reliability	90
Item Statistics	91
Summary	91
7. Experiments with URI	93
Experiment 5	94
Experiment 6	94
Prospects for URI	96
8. Determining Readability	98
Procedure	98
Results	100
Discussion and Summary	101
9. Interpreting Cloze Readability Scores	102
Procedure	103
Materials and Test Measures	103
Comprehension Tests	106
Sample Comprehension Test Passage	107
Comprehension Questions for Sample Test Passage	108
Subjects	109
Administration	109
Analysis	109
Results	109
Implications of Experiment 8	110

10. Experiments in Malay and in Mandarin	112
Establishment of Criteria of Reading Difficulty	112
Construction of Cloze Readability Tests	113
Selection of Subjects	117
Test Administration and Scoring	117
Malay Language Results	118
Chinese Language Results	118
Summary	120
11. Summary and Conclusions	122
Evaluation of Cloze Procedure	122
Objectivity	123
Reliability	124
Validity	125
Sensitivity	127
Comparability	128
Utility	129
Implications for Practice and Research	129
Appendix A Application of Information Measures to Messages and Subjects	133
Appendix B Directions for Punching Pupil Responses and Listings of Four FORTRAN Programs for Scoring Cloze Tests	141
Notes to Text	149
