

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	7
INTRODUCTION	9
1. THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL TRADITION	17
Origins	19
'Public Schools' are Grammar Schools	22
Foundation by Individual and Corporate Benefaction	25
State Participation and Patronage	34
Grammar Schools for Girls	40
The Curriculum	42
The Question of Fees	57
2. THE COMPREHENSIVE CHALLENGE	67
Definition	68
The 'All-through' Comprehensive – Anglesey and the Provinces	72
The London Comprehensives	77
Advantages of the 'All-through' Comprehensive	80
The Leicestershire Plan	82
Other Forms of Two-tier Organization – The West Riding	85
The Sixth-Form College	87
The Organization of Secondary Education – Ministerial Circular 10/65	90
3. POLITICAL BATTLEGROUNDS	93
Education and Politics	93
The Party Leaders	98
The Minister of Education	101
Party Policies	104
A Consensus?	109
Education and Politics at Local Government Level	110
Bristol	113
Fabian Tactics	117
Summary	118

CONTENTS

4.	THE CASE AGAINST THE COMPREHENSIVES	120
	'Hidden Persuaders' in Education	121
	A Dialogue on Creaming	122
	A Glossary of 'Hidden Persuaders'	124
	The Comprehensives and the General Certificate of Education	130
	Academic Performance of the Comprehensives	141
	The Supply of Teachers under Comprehensive Reorganization	148
	Comprehensive Social Engineering	157
	Comprehensivization on a Shoestring	162
5.	THE CASE FOR THE GRAMMAR SCHOOLS	166
	Is Selection Accurate or Fair?	166
	Should there be Selection at all?	180
	Is the Grammar School a Middle-class Institution?	190
	Is the Grammar School Out-of-date?	197
	Positive Merits of the Grammar School	201
	A Note on Secondary Modern Schools	203
	Summary	205
6.	THE DIRECT-GRANT AND INDEPENDENT GRAMMAR SCHOOLS	206
	Education and Independence	206
	The Direct-grant Grammar School	210
	Independent Grammar Schools	219
	Boarding	220
	Independence	223
	Integration	228
7.	TOWARDS REAL PARENTAL CHOICE	234
	A Plan for Parents' Choice	238
	The Cost of Choice	247
8.	PROSPECTS	256
	APPENDIX 1 - An American View of the Comprehensive Debate	261
	APPENDIX 2 - The 11-plus Examination	266
	REFERENCES	269
	BOOKS FOR FURTHER READING	276
	INDEX	280