

Contents

Introduction: Translation and Language Teaching Kirsten Malmkjær	1
--	---

Part One: Language Teaching for Translators

The Place of Language Teaching in a Quality-Oriented Translators' Training Programme Rosemary Mackenzie	15
--	----

Teaching Translation into L2: A TT-Oriented Approach Joanna Wetherby	21
--	----

Finding the Right Words: Translation and Language Teaching Gunilla Anderman	39
---	----

Part Two: Translation in Language Teaching

“The Foreigner in the Refrigerator” Remarks about Teaching Translation to University Students of Foreign Languages Christine Klein-Braley and Peter Franklin	53
--	----

Translation and Foreign Language Learning Dennis Newson	63
---	----

The Principled Use of Translation in Foreign Language Teaching Richard Stibbard	69
---	----

How Different are the Results of Translation Tasks? A Study of Lexical Errors Marie Källkvist	77
--	----

Part Three: At the Interface

Educating the ‘Language Elite’ Teaching Translation for Translator Training Adelina Ivanova	91
--	----

Teaching What They Didn’t Learn as Language Students Jean Vienne	111
--	-----

Qualification for Professional Translators	117
Translation in Language Teaching Versus Teaching Translation Christina Schäffner
Communication Strategies	135
Learning Strategies and Translation Strategies Andrew Chesterman
Contributors	147