

Contents

---

Series Editor's Preface	vii
Editor's Preface	ix
1 The Formation of School Subjects and the Political Context of Schooling Thomas S. Popkewitz	1
Early Childhood
2 Becoming Scientific and Professional: An Historical Perspective on the Aims and Effects of Early Education Marianne N. Bloch	25
Art
3 Art Education as Social Production: Culture, Society and Politics in the Formation of Curriculum Kerry Freedman	63
Reading and Writing
4 The Reader, the Scribe, the Thinker: A Critical Look at Reading and Writing Instruction Jennifer Monagha and Wendy Saul	85
Biology
5 Emergence of the Biology Curriculum: A Science of Life or Science of Living Dorothy B. Rosenthal and Rodger W. Bybee	123
Mathematics
6 Mathematics Education in the United States at the Beginning of the Twentieth Century George M.A. Stanic	145

Contents

Social Studies

- 7 Need as Ideology: Social Workers, Social Settlements, and the Social Studies 176
Michael Bruce Lybarger

Special Education

- 8 The First Crusade for Learning Disabilities: The Movement for the Education of Backward Children 190
Barry M. Franklin
- 9 Why Is There Learning Disabilities? A Critical Analysis of the Birth of the Field in its Social Context 210
Christine E. Sleeter

Counter-Traditions and the Politics of Silence

- 10 Outside the Selective Tradition: Socialist Curriculum for Children in the United States, 1900–1920 238
Kenneth Teitelbaum
- 11 Harold Rugg and the Reconstruction of the Social Studies Curriculum: The Treatment of the ‘Great War’ in his Textbook Series 268
Herbert M. Kliebard and Greg Wegner

Notes on Contributors 289

Index 291