Preface	xv
1. The Qualitative Methods Family	1
Differences From and Similarities With Quantitative Methods	2
The Intellectual Life Course of Qualitative Methods	3
The Formative Years	3
The Rise of Quantification and Operationalism	4
Pragmatic “Camps” in Qualitative Methods	7
The Pragmatic Middle Ground	9
Evidence-Based Practice and Qualitative Methods	10
Theoretical and Conceptual Frameworks in Qualitative Inquiry	11
Some Are a Better Fit Than Others	11
The Place and Timing of Theories in Qualitative Studies	13
Reasons for Doing Qualitative Research	15
Desirable Qualities and Skills in the Qualitative Researcher-as-Instrument	17
Studying the Familiar Versus the Unfamiliar	20
Values and Social Responsibility in Qualitative Research	21
Choosing the Topic and Making the “Argument”	23
Introducing the New York Services Study (NYSS): A Qualitative Study of Homeless Mentally Ill Adults in New York City	24
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	25
Exercises	26
Additional Readings	26
A Selection of Journals That Feature Qualitative Studies	27
Web Sites for Qualitative Methods	27

2. Choosing the Right Qualitative Approach(es)	29
Six Primary Approaches in Qualitative Research	30
Ethnography	30
Grounded Theory	32
Case Study Analysis	33
Narrative Approaches	34
Phenomenological Analysis	35
Action Research and Community-Based Participatory Research	36
Constructivist and Critical Theory Influences	38
Mixing and Matching Qualitative Approaches	39
Qualitative Methods in Program Evaluation	40
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	41
Exercises	42
Additional Readings	43
3. Getting Started: Study Design and Sampling	45
Reviewing the Literature	46
Developing a Conceptual Framework	47
Formulating Research Questions	47
Designing the Study	48
Questions Posed (and Needing Answers) by Qualitative Research Designs	49
The Element of Time	50
Specific Aspects of Qualitative Designs	51
Using Multiple Qualitative Methods at Different Levels	52
Sampling Strategies	53
Sample Size Considerations	56
Recruiting and Retaining Study Participants	57
Researcher–Participant Dynamics: Gender, Ethnicity, Age, and Social Class	58
Introducing the Three Main Types of Data Collection	59
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	59
Exercises	61
Additional Readings	61
4. Ethical Issues in Qualitative Research	63
Deception and Disclosure	63
Informed Consent	65
Coercion and “Deformed” Consent	66
Confidentiality and Privacy	67

Distress and Emotional Harm	69
Incentives, Payback, and Maintaining Goodwill	70
Institutional Review Boards and Qualitative Research	71
Dealing With Moral Ambiguity and Risk	74
Socially Responsible Research as Ethical Research	76
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	77
Exercises	77
Additional Readings	78
5. Entering the Field and Conducting Observation	79
On the Importance of Observation	79
Getting Permission(s) and Announcing the Study	81
Obtaining and Maintaining Rapport	84
Presentation of Self in the Field	84
Issues of Identity: Gender, Age, Race/Ethnicity, and Social Class	85
Researcher Self-Disclosure: How Much Is Enough? How Much Is Too Much?	86
Observation in Qualitative Studies	87
“Doing” Observation: The Best (and Only True) Way to Learn	89
Recording Observational Data	90
Uses of Video and Photography	94
Rapid Ethnographic Assessment (REA) and Time-Sensitive Qualitative Methods	95
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	96
Exercises	97
Additional Readings	98
6. Interviewing and Use of Documents	99
Informal Field Interviews	99
Focus Group Interviews	100
In-Depth Interviews	103
Interviewing Children and Other Vulnerable Populations	104
Elite and Expert Interviews	105
A Few Guidelines for Starting Out	106
Conducting the Interview	107
Probes: An Essential Part of the Qualitative Interview	111
Developing the Interview Guide	113
How Many Interviews? Issues of Quantity and Quality	115

Matching Interviewers to Respondents: The Effects of Age, Gender, Race, and Other Characteristics	115
Common Problems and Errors in Qualitative Interviewing	116
Emotional Issues in Interviewing	117
Interviewing in a Non-English Language	119
Interviewing at a Distance: Telephone and Computer-Mediated Interviews	120
Use of Audio Recorders and Other Logistical Considerations	121
Incorporating Standardized Measures Into Qualitative Interviews	122
Using Documents, Archives, and Existing Data	122
Secondary Analysis in Qualitative Research	126
Ending Data Collection and Leaving the Field	126
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	127
Exercises	128
Additional Readings	129
7. Data Analysis and Interpretation	131
Data Management: Dealing With Volume Early On	132
Using Qualitative Data Analysis (QDA)
Software Part I: Storing and Managing Data	133
Multiple Users and Cross-Site Databases	134
Transcribing Interviews	134
Using "Outside" Transcribers	136
Protecting Confidentiality During Transcription	137
Translating From a Non-English Language	137
Analyzing Qualitative Data: The Search for Meaning	139
Use of Case Summaries and Data Displays	140
Theories and Concepts in Qualitative Data Analysis: A Continuum of Involvement	141
Data Analysis in Diverse Qualitative Approaches	141
Content Analysis in Qualitative Research	142
Ethnography and Data Analysis	142
Case Study Analysis	143
Data Analysis in Narrative Approaches	144
Phenomenological Analyses	150
Action and Community-Based Participatory Research: Analyzing Data	150
Analysis in Longitudinal Designs	150

Coding and Thematic Development	151
Varied Approaches to Coding	151
Starting Out: Identifying and Labeling Codes	152
Documenting and Verifying Coding Procedures:
Independent Co-Coding	154
Comparing and Contrasting: Memo-Writing	155
Producing Categories and Themes:
Differing Analytic Possibilities	156
Beyond Coding	161
Multitasking During Coding:
An Example From the NYSS	161
Using Qualitative Data Analysis (QDA)
Software Part II: Facilitating Data Analysis	164
Using Numbers and Quantification in
Qualitative Data Analyses	167
Negative Case Analysis and Causation	167
Secondary Analysis and Meta-Synthesis	169
Hybrid and Mixed Qualitative Approaches
to Data Analysis	170
Saturation and Interpretation	171
An Example of a Conceptual Schema	172
In Pursuit of Methodological Transparency	174
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	175
Exercises	176
Additional Readings	177
QDA Software Resources	178
8. Strategies for Rigor	179
Evaluating Qualitative Research:
Debates About Standards and Strategies	180
Evaluative Criteria and External Standards	180
In the Eye of the Beholder?	181
The Meaning(s) of Generalizability in
Qualitative Methods	182
Defining Rigor in Qualitative Research	184
Threats to the Trustworthiness of Qualitative Studies	184
Strategies for Rigor in Qualitative Research	185
Prolonged Engagement	186
Triangulation	186
Peer Debriefing and Support	188

Member Checking	190
Negative Case Analysis	191
Auditing—Leaving a Decision Trail	191
Questions of Rigor in Community-Based Research	193
Strategies for Rigor in Differing Qualitative Approaches	194
Guidelines for Appraising the Quality of a Study:
Adequacy Is Key	194
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	195
Exercises	197
Additional Readings	198
9. Telling the Story: Writing Up the Qualitative Study	199
Deciding on an Approach	200
Targeting the Audience	201
Diachronic Versus Synchronic Reports	201
The Researcher's Role in the Report	202
Using Numbers in the Report	203
Coauthorship in Qualitative Studies	204
Organizing the Report—Key Components	205
Qualitative Reports Across the Diverse Approaches	207
Balancing Description and Interpretation	209
Writing Stance and Style	210
Rhetorical Devices Suited to Qualitative Studies	210
Writing Style: Creating Rhythm and Flow	213
Use of Metaphors and Other Tropes	213
The Ultimate Goal—Dissemination of the Study Findings	214
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	217
Exercises	218
Additional Readings	218
Selected Monographs	218
10. Mixed Methods	221
The Rise of Mixed Methods and Their Rationale(s)	221
Types of Mixed Methods Research	222
Sequential Designs	224
Concurrent Designs	225
Mixed Methods: Ways of Going About It	225
Structural and Design Decisions:
What, When, Where, and How?	225
Some Examples of Mixed Methods Studies	228
Writing the Mixed Method Report	231

Challenges for Mixed Methods Studies	232
Mixed Method Approaches to Program and Practice Evaluation	233
Summary and Concluding Thoughts	236
Exercises	236
Additional Readings	237
Appendix: Writing a Qualitative Methods Proposal for External Funding	239
Finding the Right Fit With Funding Priorities: Emerging Opportunities	241
Getting Past the Catch 22	243
Setting the Stage	245
Questions From Reviewers Regarding Qualitative Methods Proposals	246
Budgeting Time and Resources	246
Twenty Tips for Writing the Proposal	250
Additional Readings	251
References	253
Index	273
About the Author	281

List of Tables, Figures, and Boxes

Tables

10.1 Mixed Methods Designs Arranged by Timing and Dominance	223
--	-----

Figures

1.1 The Foundations and Processes of a Qualitative Study	14
7.1 A Sample Life Trajectory from the NYSS	147
7.2 Themes and Subthemes from Phase 1 of the NYSS	160
8.1 Strategies for Enhancing Rigor and Trustworthiness	187
10.1 A Longitudinal Mixed Methods Design	231
10.2 An Oscillating Mixed Methods Design	231

Boxes

2.1 Qualitative Approaches in the New York Services Study	42
3.1 Questions Posed by Qualitative Research Designs	50
3.2 Research Designs in the New York Services Study	60
5.1 Field Notes from a Visit to the Homeless Outreach Center (HOC)	91
6.1 Tips for Qualitative Interviewing	101
6.2 The Importance of Probes Both Planned and Spontaneous: “Air Theory” and Breast Cancer	108
6.3 An Example of Interviewer Feedback from the NYSS	110

6.4	The Importance of Face-to-Face Interviewing	112
6.5	Checklists and Standardized Measures in the NYSS	123
6.6	Interviews as Unintentional Interventions	124
7.1	A Brief Quiz on Transcription “Errors”	138
7.2	Multiple Case Study Analyses in the NYSS	145
7.3	An Example of Quantified Thematic Development	157
7.4	An Interview Excerpt from the NYSS	163
7.5	The Life of a Hard-Working Code: Linking “Up and Out” to Theory	165
7.6	Operationalizing Saturation: A Study of Sex Workers in West Africa	173
8.1	Strategies for Rigor in Action: An Exemplar Study	192
8.2	Addressing Questions from Skeptical Reviewers	195
8.3	Some Examples of Methodological Transparency	196
9.1	Choosing the Right Title	208
9.2	Degrees of Data Transformation: Sandelowski and Barroso’s (2003) Classification of Findings	211
10.1	A Mixed Method Study (QUAN+qual) Testing a Measure of Social Capital in Peru and Vietnam	226
10.2	“Quantitizing” Data in a Grounded Theory Study of Breast and Prostate Cancer Online Discussion Boards	229
10.3	Serendipitous Findings and Mixed Methods: An Example from the Harlem Mammogram Study	234
A.1	Making a Compelling Argument: Rhetoric and Reason	244
A.2	The Review Process at the National Institutes of Health (NIH)	247
