

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xvi
1 INTRODUCTION	1
Do schoolteachers need to learn management? Instinct, common sense, skills and techniques. What is management? Who is a manager? The manager and the organization: Integration of resources; Effective change; Maintaining and developing resources. Ethics and the manager. The school's role and mission: are education and management incompatible?
PART I MANAGING PEOPLE
2 THE MANAGER AS A LEADER	15
Interpersonal skills. Management style models. Orientation and behaviour. Dominant and back-up approaches. Suiting behaviour to circumstances. Recognizing inappropriate behaviour. Leadership and job experience: Signs of inappropriate use of assertive behaviour; Signs of inappropriate use of solicitous behaviour. Passive/political orientation. Style and the school manager.
3 MOTIVATING PEOPLE	24
Motivation. Whom do we need to motivate? Satisfying needs. Maslow's hierarchy of needs. The relevance of hierarchy. Theory X and Theory Y. Frederick Herzberg.

- Involvement. Achievement needs. The self-motivated achiever. Motivation theory and the school manager. Opinion questionnaire. Assessing the motivation of others.
- 4 TAKING AND IMPLEMENTING DECISIONS 47
Making things happen. Taking decisions. Logical steps in decision-taking. The implementation of decisions. A structure for implementation. Styles in decision-taking. Consultative decision-taking – the ‘management contract’. Commitment. Delegation. Key principles.
- 5 MANAGING MEETINGS 60
Meetings and the manager. Tests of an effective meeting: Purpose of the meeting; Attendance; Preparation; The use of time – meeting structure. Large meetings. Decision-taking. Information exchange. Generation of ideas. Group dynamics. Preparing for a meeting. Group performance check-list.
- 6 RECRUITING, APPRAISING AND DEVELOPING STAFF 78
People as a resource. Recruitment of staff: Confirming the appointment; Induction; Developing staff. Appraisal. Meeting development needs. The re-entry problem. Group training. A coherent approach.
- 7 MANAGING CONFLICT 96
A key skill. The value of conflict. Reason and emotion in conflict. The dangers of conflict. Inter-group competition. Attitudes to conflict. Solving problems of conflict. Handling ‘organizational’ conflicts. Preventing unnecessary conflict. Guidelines for handling conflict. Conflict-management skills. Conflict orientation questionnaire. Role revision strategy. Image exchange. School review.
- 8 MANAGING YOURSELF 122
The manager as a resource. The use and abuse of time. Establishing priorities. Criteria for effectiveness. Time-management techniques. Managing stress. Assertiveness.

Developing your own competence. Managing your learning: Managing our attitudes and behaviour. Positive and negative management. Criteria for effectiveness – establishing priorities. Use of time analysis. Time log. Learning styles questionnaire.

PART II MANAGING THE ORGANIZATION

- 9 ORGANIZATIONS 149
The organizational dimension. Organizational goals. Stakeholders. Environment. Models of organizations: The classical model; The humanistic model; The systems model; The decision model; The contingency model. Elements of organizations. Interlocking systems.
- 10 TEAMS 172
The nature of teams. Team roles. Team-building. Self-perception inventory for use in team-building. Formulating objectives.
- 11 MANAGING THE CURRICULUM 190
The National Curriculum. Meeting the needs of tomorrow's citizens: Creating positive attitudes. Involving the stakeholders. Corporate planning. Aims and value systems. Curriculum development in practice.
- 12 MANAGING THE TECHNOLOGY 200
Keeping pace with change. Equipment appraisal. Trends in computing. Computer applications in the office. Advantages of personal computing: Educational administration packages. Educational 'author' packages. New technology and the education manager.
- 13 MANAGING RESOURCES 212
Resource-driven or need-driven? Investing money. Local management in schools. Cost/benefit analysis. Budgeting and financial control. Resource control. Adapting existing resources to fit the need.

14	MANAGING THE ENVIRONMENT	221
	External relations. The angry parent. Parents as partners. Governors. Skills required in dealing with parents, governors and employers.
PART III MANAGING CHANGE
15	CHANGE DESCRIBED	229
	The nature of change. Appreciating the complexity of change. Why plans for implementing change fail.
16	ANTECEDENTS OF SUCCESSFUL CHANGE	237
	Organizational conditions conducive to successful change. Managerial qualities needed to handle change.
17	A SYSTEMATIC APPROACH TO CHANGE	247
	Introduction to the approach. Assessing the soundness of a proposed change. The reconnaissance. Describing the future. Describing the present. Readiness and capability. Force field analysis. Problems to be tackled. Resources for change.
18	TRANSITION MANAGEMENT	266
	Transition management structure. Tasks for the transition management. Developing a plan. Hierarchy of objectives. Gaining commitment. Responsibility charting. Monitoring and evaluating change.
19	SOME CASE STUDIES OF CHANGE	283
	Westfield School. Easterham School. St Swithin's College.
	Glossary	308
	References	311
	Index	316