

Contents

Preface	xi
PART I: UNDERSTANDING EDUCATIONAL CHANGE
1 The Purpose and Plan of the Book	3
The Plan of the Book	8
What Is School Reform For?	13
2 Sources of Educational Change	17
The Sources of Innovation	19
Innovations Are Not Ends in Themselves	27
3 The Meaning of Educational Change	30
The General Problem of the Meaning of Change	30
The Subjective Meaning of Educational Change	32
The Objective Reality of Educational Change	36
Implications of the Subjective and Objective Realities	43
4 The Causes and Processes of Initiation	47
Factors Affecting Initiation	50
The Initiation Process	61
5 Causes/Processes of Implementation and Continuation	65
Factors Affecting Implementation	66
Key Factors in the Implementation Process	67
Key Themes in the Implementation Process	80
Factors Affecting Continuation	88
Perspectives on the Change Process	90
6 Planning, Doing, and Coping with Change	94
Why Planning Fails	94
Success Is Possible	100
Planning and Coping	102
The Scope of Change	110

7	The Teacher	117
	Where Teachers Are	118
	Enter Change	126
	What Makes Change Work for Teachers	131
	Guidelines for Teachers	137
	Professionalism at the Crossroads	141
8	The Principal	144
	Where Principals Are	145
	The Principal and Change	152
	New Dimensions of Leadership	157
	What to Do?	164
9	The Student	170
	Where Students Are	170
	The Student and Change	182
	Implications	188
10	The District Administrator	191
	Where District Administrators Are	191
	The District Administration and Change	197
	Cautions and Guidelines	209
11	The Consultant	215
	Internal and District Consultants	216
	External Consultants	221
	Implications	223
12	The Parent and the Community	227
	Parent Involvement in Schools	228
	School Boards, Communities, and Change	243
	Guidelines for Coping	246

13	Governments	253
	The United States Federal Government	254
	The State Education Department	264
	Canadian Federal and Provincial Governments	271
	Guidelines for Governments	282
14	Professional Preparation of Teachers	289
	University Preservice	291
	Induction	301
	Alternative Certification	309
15	Professional Development of Educators	315
	The Professional Development of Administrators and Consultants	336
	Guidelines for Effective Professional Development	341
16	The Future of Educational Change	345
	From Negative to Positive Politics	347
	From Monolithic to Alternative Solutions	348
	From Innovations to Institutional Development	348
	From Going It Alone to Alliances	349
	From Neglect to Deeper Appreciation of the Change Process	350
	From “If Only” to “If I” or “If We”	351
	The Message	352
	Endnotes	355
	References	359
	Index	385
	About the Authors	401