

Contents

Introduction: Alternative Perspectives on School Improvement	i
Section One: The Concept of School Improvement
What is School Improvement? Staking Out the Territory David Hopkins	7
Characteristics of the Autonomous School Richard Schmuck	21
Improvement or Not – That is the Question? Mats Ekholm	33
Section Two: The Actors
Introducing Innovation to Pupils Jean Rudduck	53
Artistry and Teaching: the Teacher as Focus of Research and Development Lawrence Stenhouse	67
Transfer of Training: the Contribution of ‘Coaching’ Bruce Joyce and Beverly Showers	77
The Principal as an Agent of Knowledge Utilization (KU) for School Improvement Michael Fullan	89
Section Three: Perspectives on Change
Towards a Reconceptualization of Curriculum Implementation Ted Aoki	107

Contents

Assisting Schools to Develop School-Focused Action Programmes Ken Eltis, John Braithwaite, Christine Deer, Harry Kensell	119
School Reviews: a New Zealand Experience Viviane Robinson	141
The Place of Organization Development (OD) in Schools Philip Runkel and Richard Schmuck	153
Section Four: A Call to Action
Maintaining Diversity in Schools Philip Runkel	167
Implications for Practice Marvin Wideen and Ian Andrews	189
Contributors	203
Index	207