

I. THE ANGLO-SAXON HERITAGE

Table of Contents

	Page
The Anglo-Saxon Background
The extremities of the Beowulfian body politic Stanley B. Greenfield, University of Oregon . . .	1
Boethius and a topos in Beowulf Whitney F. Bolton, Rutgers University . . . . .	15
Queen Wealhtheow's offering of the cup to Beowulf André Crépin, Université de Picardie. . . . .	45
Beowulf and Alfred on wyrd and worldly glory J. D. A. Ogilvy, University of Colorado . . . . .	59
Marriage in seventh century England Rosalind Hill, Radlett, Hertfordshire . . . . .	67
Charters in the name of King Alfred Dorothy Whitelock, Cambridge University . . . . .	77
 The World of Bede
Ireland and Rome: the double inheritance of Northumbria Gerald Bonner, University of Durham . . . . .	101
Rhetorical and symbolic ambiguity: Symphosius and Aldhelm Peter Dale Scott, University of California at Berkeley . . . . .	117
Grammatica mystica , a study of Bede's grammatical curriculum Margot H. King, University of Saskatchewan. . . . .	145
Imitation and Bede's Historia Ecclesiastica Calvin B. Kendall, University of Minnesota. . . . .	161
The art of Bede: Edwin's council Donald K. Fry, State University of New York, Stony Brook . . . . .	191
Biblical criticism in Bedan manuscripts Thomas W. MacKay, Brigham Young University. . . . .	209
Bede and the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle Janet Bately, King's College, London. . . . .	233

Table of Contents

	Page
Feasts of Light and Time
Light in the Digby Mary Magdalene Sister Nicholas Maltman, Dominican College of San Raphael. . . . .	257
Mony turned tyme : the cycle of the year as a religious symbol Robert W. Hanning, Columbia University. . . . .	281
CHARLES W. JONES: a bibliography W. M. Stevens, University of Winnipeg. . . . .	299