

Contents

Illustrations	vii
Editors' Preface	ix
Gerald Strauss: Historian	xi

INTELLECTUAL LIFE

The Antichrist in the Early German Reformation: Reflections on Theology and Propaganda Hans J. Hillerbrand	3
Discovery of Hebrew and Discrimination against the Jews: The Veritas Hebraica as Double-Edged Sword in Renaissance and Reformation Heiko A. Oberman	19
Radical Religion and the Age of Reason Andrew C. Fix	35

SOCIETY

Haug Marschalck: Lay Supporter of the Reform Miriam Usher Christman	59
First Impressions in the Strasbourg Press Mark U. Edwards, Jr.	75
Alternatives to the Lutheran Reformation and the Rise of Lutheran Identity Heinz Schilling	99
Kinder, Küche, Kirche : Social Ideology in the Sermons of Johannes Mathesius Susan Karant-Nunn	121

Success and Failure of the Reformation: Popular "Apologies" from the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries
Hans-Christoph Rublack	141

POLITICS

Between State and Community: Religious and Ethnic Minorities in Early Modern Germany
R. Po-chia Hsia	169
Ideology Meets the Empire: Reformed Convents and the Reformation
Merry E. Wiesner	181
Some Peculiarities of German Histories in the Early Modern Era
Thomas A. Brady, Jr.	197
Curious Georgics: The German Nobility and Their Crisis of Legitimacy in the Late Sixteenth Century
H. C. Erik Midelfort	217
The Social Role of Seventeenth-Century German Territorial States
Richard L. Gawthrop	243
About the Contributors	261
Index	266

Illustrations

Gerald Strauss	x
Saint Jerome in his study	xxiv
The Antichrist, by Cranach	18
Cloth Hall, Bruges	56
The Emperor and Pope, Bologna, 1530	166
Emperor Maximilian I, by Dürer	196
Woodcut by Hans Burgkmaier	261