

Contents

1	THE SYMBOLIC FORM OF LIBERALISM	9
	The Balanced Society
	The Motivation of Man
	The Realization of Universal Order
2	LIBERTY AND THE LIBERAL TRADITION OF DISCOURSE	31
	The Appeal to Conscience
	The Appeal to Reason
	The Status of Mill's Essay 'On Liberty'
3	THE UNITY OF LIBERAL IDEOLOGY	57
	The Right to Resist Tyranny
	The Way to Maintain Liberty
	The Organization of Government
4	THE DIALECTIC OF LIBERAL DOCTRINE	81
	Popular Government and the Rise of Nationalism
	For and Against Laissez-faire
	Socialism and the Rise of Totalitarianism
5	THE FOUNDATIONS AND LOGIC OF LIBERAL ARGUMENTS	119
	Locke's Theological Argument in The Second Treatise of Government
	J. S. Mill's Use of History in Considerations on Representative Government
	Spencer's Appeal to Sociology in The Man Versus the State
	T. H. Green's Philosophical Argument in Lectures on the Principles of Political Obligation
6	THE IDEOLOGICAL CHARACTER OF LIBERALISM	139
	Notes	159
	Select Bibliography	169
	Index	171