4 Regional languages

4.1 Alsatian
  4.1.1 History
  4.1.2 Politics
  4.1.3 Language

4.2 Basque
  4.2.1 History
  4.2.2 Politics
  4.2.3 Language

4.3 Breton
  4.3.1 History
  4.3.2 Politics
  4.3.3 Language and culture

4.4 Catalan
  4.4.1 History
  4.4.2 Politics
  4.4.3 Language

4.5 Corsican
  4.5.1 History
  4.5.2 Politics
  4.5.3 Language

4.6 Flemish
  4.6.1 History
  4.6.2 Politics
  4.6.3 Language

5 French abroad

5.1 Historical situation
5.2 Countries, regions and territories
  5.2.1 Europe
  5.2.2 Near East
  5.2.3 North Africa
  5.2.4 Sub-Saharan Africa
  5.2.5 West Indies
  5.2.6 Pacific and Indian Oceans
  5.2.7 Indochina
  5.2.8 North America
5.3 Canada
   5.3.1 Historical situation 97
   5.3.2 Quebec: corpus and status planning 99
   5.3.3 Quebec: French regional and social varieties 102
   5.3.4 Quebec: attitudes of speech communities 103
5.4 Attitudes and policies in France 104
5.5 Attitudes and policies abroad 109
5.6 French in international organisations 110

6 Social variation: age and sex
6.1 Age
   6.1.1 Children's language 113
   6.1.2 Adults and the old 118
6.2 Sex 118

7 Social categories
7.1 Models of society 126
7.2 Social class in France 127
7.3 Upper- and lower-class usage 135
   7.3.1 Pronunciation 136
   7.3.2 Lexis 137
   7.3.3 Syntax 138
   7.3.4 Style 139
7.4 Interpretations of social-category differences 140

8 The outsider
8.1 Jews
   8.1.1 Historical situation 144
   8.1.2 Present situation 146
   8.1.3 Linguistic situation 147
8.2 Gypsies
   8.2.1 History and present situation 148
   8.2.2 Language 151
8.3 Armenians
   8.3.1 History and present situation 152
   8.3.2 Language 153
8.4 Other immigrants
   8.4.1 History and present situation 154
   8.4.2 Language(s) 157
8.5 Social outcasts
  8.5.1 Present situation 159
  8.5.2 Language 160

9 Social variation: occupations
9.1 Professional discourse 163
  9.1.1 Tasks and groups 163
  9.1.2 Analysis of professional discourse 165
  9.1.3 The study of language at work 166
9.2 Legal language 168
  9.2.1 Sources 168
  9.2.2 Characteristics 169
  9.2.3 Attitudes 173
9.3 Science and technology 175
  9.3.1 Sources 175
  9.3.2 Characteristics 176
  9.3.3 Text types 179
  9.3.4 French and English in scientific language 180
  9.3.5 Control of scientific language 182
9.4 Commerce and management 182
  9.4.1 Sources 182
  9.4.2 Characteristics 186

10 Interaction
10.1 Approaches and methods 194
10.2 The communication situation 195
10.3 Monologue and group interaction 198
  10.3.1 Monologue 198
  10.3.2 Group interaction 200
10.4 The structure of dyadic interaction 201
  10.4.1 Purposeful interaction 201
  10.4.2 Conversation 203
10.5 Formality levels 208
  10.5.1 Stereotypes 208
  10.5.2 T/V oppositions and forms of address 209
10.6 Written and spoken differences 210
  10.6.1 Differences of code 211
  10.6.2 Other differences 212
10.7 Registers 213
11 Language policy

11.1 Historical overview 218
11.2 French opinions and attitudes 222
  11.2.1 Awareness of language questions 222
  11.2.2 The general public 223
  11.2.3 Politicians 226
  11.2.4 Intellectuals 227
  11.2.5 Linguists 231
  11.2.6 Pressure groups 235
  11.2.7 A language crisis? 236
11.3 The norm 238
11.4 Contemporary language legislation 241
  11.4.1 General language laws 241
  11.4.2 Terminology arrêtés 242
  11.4.3 Ministerial control in education 243
11.5 Contemporary official language policy 244
  11.5.1 1981-1986 244
  11.5.2 The Chirac government 245
  11.5.3 The Rocard government 246
11.6 Language control and support mechanisms 246

Index 250
Bibliography 254

List of maps

France: regional languages and dialects 23
Alsace: dialects of German 59
Brittany: dialects of Breton 70
Francophonie 90