Contents

List of Contributors xi
Preface 1

PART I: THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES AND PHILOSOPHICAL FOUNDATIONS

1. An Interdisciplinary Approach to Moral Education 9
James R. Rest
The Four Components 14

2. The Just Community Approach to Moral Education in Theory and Practice 27
Lawrence Kohlberg
A Notion of Justice 35
A Notion of Community 37
Integrating Justice and Community 43
Example of a Just Community: Cambridge Cluster School 44
The Development of the Just Community 46
Justice and Convention in the Just Community: Scarsdale Alternative School 57
Judgment and Action in the Just Community 60
Assessing the Just Community 74
Response to Habermas 82

3. Autonomy and Universalization as Moral Principles: A Dispute with Kohlberg, Utilitarianism and Discourse Ethics 89
Otfried Höffe
Morality as Categorical Imperative 93
Two Complementary Moral Principles: Universalization and Autonomy 95
Criticism of Utilitarianism 100
Criticism of Discourse Ethics 102

4. The Process of Moral Decision-Making: Normative and Empirical Conditions of Participation in Moral Discourse 109
Monika Keller and Siegfried Reuss
Aspects of a Normative Theory of Moral Reasoning 109
Psychological Prerequisities of Discursive Ethics 111
Interpersonal Moral Reasoning: An Empirical Developmental Approach 112
Developmental Levels of Interpersonal-Moral Reasoning 113
Developmental Levels in Relation to Principles and Strategies of Justification 119
Aspects of a Concept of Analytical Moral Pedagogy 120

PART II: APPLICATIONS AND INTERVENTIONS
A. THE FAMILY

5. Parents as Moral Educators 127
Thomas Lickona
Morality is Respect 129
A Morality of Respect Develops Slowly, Through Stages 129
Foster Mutual Respect 131
Set a Good Example 135
Teach by Telling 136
Help Children Learn to Think for Themselves 138
Help Children Take on Real Responsibilities 139
Balance Independence and Control 140
Love Children 142

6. Moral Development and Personal Reliability: The Impact of the Family on Two Aspects of Moral Consciousness in Adolescence 147
Rainer Döbert and Gertrud Nunner-Winkler
The Role of Peers and the Family in Cognitive Theories of Socialization 147

Hypotheses About Two Aspects of Morality and Their Familial Antecedents 151
Method 155
Results and Discussion 158
Final Comment 168
Appendix A 170
Appendix B 171

7. The Role of Affective Processes in Moral Judgment Performance 175
Susanne Villenave-Cremer and Lutz Eckensberger
The Relationship Between Cognition and Affect in Moral Judgment 176
An Action-Theoretical Approach to Moral Competence and Affective Processes in Conflict-Solving 178
The Empirical Study 183
Results and Test of the Hypotheses 191
Discussion 192

B. THE SCHOOL

8. The Role of Discussion in Moral Education 197
Marvin W. Berkowitz
Peer Discussion in Moral Education 197
Moral Discussion as Developmental Process 202
Role of Transactive Discussion in Moral Education 208
Transactive Discussion in the Family 209
Formal Operations and Transactive Discussion 211
Future Directions 215

9. Democratic Moral Education in the Large Public High School 219
Clark Power
The Developmental Approach to Democratic Schooling: The Alternative High Schools 220
The Moral Atmosphere of the Large High School 223
The Brookline Democracy Project 229
The Future of the Project 236

C. THE WORKPLACE AND PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

10. Work Climate and Socio-Moral Development in Two Worker-Owned Companies 241
Ann Higgins and Frederick Gordon
A Theoretical Perspective 242
The Methodology and Measurement of Work Climate 246

Two Case Studies: North Country Restoration and Southland Sewing 252
Conclusion 265

11. But it Does Move: The Difficulty of Gradual Change in Moral Development
Fritz Oser and Andre Schläfli 269
Apprentices and Socio-Moral Learning 269
Earlier Studies 271
The Development-Education Paradigm and its Generalization to the Diversity of Socio-Moral Partial Learning Processes: A Criticism of Previous Research 272
Two Models of Transformation and Their Integration 275
The Intervention with Bank Apprentices 278
Results 281
Concluding Commentary 293

12. Classical Ethics and Live Patient Simulations in the Moral Education of Health Care Professionals
Daniel Candee 297
Moral Thought and Moral Action 297
Moral Reasoning and Clinical Performance 298
Moral Education Measures and Techniques 299

D. CLINICAL SETTINGS

13. Stage, Phase, and Style: The Developmental Dynamics of the Self
Gil G. Noam 321
Functional and Structural Models: Phase and Stage 322
Stage and Style 335
The Dynamic of Stage, Phase and Style: The Example of Melissa 340
Conclusion 344

14. Moral Reasoning in the Assessment and Outcome of Suicidal Breakdown
Alexandra Hewer 347
Case 1–Woody 350
Case 2–Paul 356
Conclusion to the Case Studies 361
Discussion 363
Appendix 365

15. The Adolescent as Interpersonal Negotiator: Three Portraits of Social Development
Steven Brion-Meisels and Robert L. Selman 369
Interpersonal Negotiation Strategies: A Developmental Approach 371
Three Portraits 377
Closing Comments 381

PART III: CRITIQUES AND REVISIONS

16. Moral Intervention: A Skeptical Note
Wolfgang Edelstein 387
Open Questions of a Performance Theory of Moral Judgment and Moral Action 389
Contradictions Between Moral Development and the Structure and Function of Schooling 396

17. Limited Morality: A Concept and its Educational Implications
Mordecai Nisan 403
Limited Morality 407
A Theoretical Analysis of a Program of Value Education 413
Concluding Remarks 418

18. The Postconventional Level of Moral Development: Psychology of Philosophy?
Guido Küng 421
The Postulation of Postconventional Stages 421
The Special Nature of the Postconventional Level 422
Three Arguments in Favor of Postconventional Stages 423
Criteria for Psychological Blueprints of Development 425
Logical Analysis of the Exact Nature of Conceptual Presupposition 429
Conclusion 430

19. The Moral Personality: Reflections for Social Science and Education
Augusto Blasi 433
The Meanings of "Moral Personality" 434
Social Science and the Good Will 438
Conclusion 442

Author Index 445

Subject Index 451