

Contents

 Indicates assemblies more suitable for older students.*

Introduction

Being Human: One

1 Wealth and possessions	1
2 Accidents and personal tragedy	3
3 Values	5
4 Death and bereavement	8
5 Showing off? Telling the truth?	9
6 Under pressure	12
7 Time	14
8 Change	16
9 Courage and bravery	18
10 Language and speaking	20
11 Listening and imagination	22
12 Human needs	23

Education: School Days

1 A new school (1)	26
2 A new school (2)	28
3 Teaching	32
4 Learning	34
5 Bullying	36
6 Schools as institutions	39
7 Achievement	41
8 Rules and expectations	43
9 Reputation	46
10 Examinations (1)	48
11 Examinations (2)	50
12 Leaving school	53

Faith and Religion

1 Creation stories	56
2 Origins of the species (1)	60
3 Origins of the species (2)*	62
4 The Berlin Wall	64
5 Personal faith: St Joan	67
6 Life after death	68
7 Heaven and hell	70
8 Is there a God?	72
9 Blasphemy	75

10 Having a vision	77
11 Acting in good faith	79
12 Six religions of the world	81
Our Global Village	88
1 The Commonwealth	88
2 Poverty	89
3 War (1)	92
4 War (2)	96
5 Famine	99
6 The scourge of malnutrition	101
7 Mother Teresa	102
8 First World versus Third World: the myth of overpopulation*	104
9 Contrasting cultures	107
10 Racial differences	110
11 Third World driving hints and tips	111
12 Nuclear weapons	114
Shakespeare's Universal Themes	117
1 Seven ages of man	118
2 Life and death	119
3 Sleep	120
4 Patriotism	121
5 Good character	122
6 Conscience	124
7 Honour, loyalty, ambition	125
8 Betrayal, murder	126
9 Mercy	127
10 Kingship	128
11 Love	128
12 Time
Equal Opportunities	130
1 Discrimination at work	130
2 Equal rights*	133
3 Expectations	135
4 It's a man's job being a mother	138
5 Education of girls: going to university*	140
6 The 1990s: decade of women in leadership	143
7 Sexism in language	144
8 Changing cultures	147
9 Conflicting generations	148
10 Racism (1)	151
11 Racism (2)	153
12 'To thine own self be true'	155
Science and Technology	159
1 The beginnings of science	159
2 Science: for good or ill? (1)	161
3 Science: for good or ill? (2)*	162

4	Misuse of medicine*	164
5	Humans in the air	166
6	Space exploration	169
7	Life in the Siberian cold	170
8	Word processors and language*	172
9	Certainties of science and technology	175
10	Fears of technological progress	177
11	Technology and the world of work*	178
12	Transforming lifestyles	181
Rights and Responsibilities		185
1	Stand up for your rights	185
2	Standing up for what is right	187
3	The price of freedom	190
4	Right and wrong: who's responsible?	192
5	Parents and children (1)	193
6	Parents and children (2)	195
7	Universal Declaration of Human Rights	197
8	What is democracy?*	198
9	Territory	200
10	Pressure groups	202
11	Terrorists and freedom fighters	204
12	The atomic bomb	205
Health and environment		208
1	Children in the workplace (1)	208
2	Children in the workplace (2)	210
3	Homelessness	212
4	Euthanasia	214
5	Mental health: teenage suicide	216
6	Living with disease (1)	218
7	Living with disease (2)	220
8	Immunisation: a public health revolution	223
9	The Third Age	225
10	Overpopulation: 'A modest proposal'	227
11	Progress	229
12	Architecture: A Vision of Britain	231
Justice and Ideals		234
1	A sense of community	234
2	'I have a dream'	236
3	Prison life	238
4	Individual versus society	240
5	Leadership and vision	242
6	Political prisoners (1)	245
7	Political prisoners (2)*	248
8	Ideas and ideals	250
9	Equal before the law	252
10	Animal rights	254
11	Holy wars	256
12	Persecution	258

The Media	261
1 The world of Doublespeak*	261
2 New media: information devices*	263
3 From papyrus to information technology	265
4 'Never let the facts get in the way of the story.'	267
5 Advertising and consumerism (1)	269
6 Advertising and consumerism (2)	272
7 Advertising in schools	274
8 Power of television	275
9 What makes news?	278
10 Heroes and heroines	281
11 'Things were not supposed to turn out this way'*	282
12 The year 2000*	284
Being Human: Two	288
1 Being reliable	288
2 Knowledge and learning	290
3 Disability	292
4 Problems and pain	294
5 Childhood and adolescence*	296
6 Family life	298
7 How others see us: how we see ourselves	301
8 Patience and frustration	302
9 Hope and despair	304
10 Envy and enthusiasm	307
11 Revenge	309
12 Living with your actions	312
Acknowledgements	315